Ladies' Music Club Guest Day Is Held

Mrs. R. G. Large in Charge Of Program With Schubert's Life And Works as Subject

The Ladies' Music Club held its first guest day of the season on Wednesday afternoon at St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral. The President, Mrs. Shelford Darton, welcomed the ladies with a few appropriate remarks and, as a fitting tribute to Remembrance Day, requested Mrs. R. G. Large to sing "Lest We Forget."

The program was arranged by

Mrs. Large, who first read a very interesting paper on the life and works of Franz Schubert and then presented the following of his works:

Piano solo, "Moment Musical,"

Mrs. E. J. Smith.

Vocal solo, "The Trout," Mrs.

Bernard Lundahl.

Piano duet, "Marche Militaire,"

Mrs. E. J. Smith and Mrs. W. L. Stamford.

Vocal solo, "Cradle Song," Mrs.

J. H. McLeod.

Violin solo, "Serenade," Miss Nellie Lawrence.

Quartette, "Who is Sylvia?" Mrs.

H. N. Brocklesby, Mrs. Lundahl,

Mrs. J. G. McKinley and Mrs. S. D. Johnston.

Piano solo, "Impromptu in G Major,"

Mrs. W. L. Stamford.

Vocal solo, "Ave Marie," Mrs. S. D. Johnston.

Piano solo, "Slow Movement, Fantasia, Opus 15," Miss Marie Balagno.

Mrs. T. A. McWaters was in charge of tea and refreshments.

The tea table looked lovely with its silver bowl of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums surrounded by tall yellow tapers.

Mrs. R. L. McIntosh and Mrs. J. H. McLeod poured while members of the executive acted as ushers.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Cox arrived in the city yesterday from Ecstall River where Mr. Cox is superintendent of the Northern Pyrites mine. Mrs. Cox sailed on the Cardena this morning for Vancouver and Mr. Cox will return to the mine tomorrow.

YOUNG FOLK ORGANIZED

A.Y.P.A. is Formed at Seal Cove—Active Season is Being Planned

An Anglican Young People's Association has been formed at St. Peter's Church, Seal Cove, and has a membership of twenty. The following officers have been elected:

President, Teddy Moore.

Vice-President, Josephine Gay.

Secretary, Florence Walker.

Treasurer, Helen Doedon.

The first regular meeting following the election of officers was held Thursday night and all the members were present.

An instructive visit was paid to the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co. plant, C. J. Norrington acting as guide to the company. Following the exploration of the cold storage, the members visited the Newcombe restaurant for coffee and cake, a very welcome conclusion to the tour of the fish refrigerators.

At a brief meeting following refreshments it was decided to organize further and go into greater detail of organization next Thursday night when the dividing of the society into groups for tournaments and other purposes will take place.

A service of Holy Communion will be held Sunday morning for the A.Y.P.A. members who are confirmed.

ARE WEDDED IN CHURCH

Miss Ella Steen Becomes Bride Of Terry Stewart at Pretty Ceremony

First United Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding Thursday evening, when Miss Isabella Dick Steen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Steen of this city, became the bride of Terence Andrew Stewart, son of Mrs. Walter Hammersley of Vancouver and the late Herbert Stewart, Rev. J. C. Jackson officiating.

The bride, lovely in a gown of ivory satin with nose-length veil caught in the hair with a white satin rose, carrying a nosegay of colored rosebuds, entered the church on the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage, to the strains of the wedding march with Miss Swanna Olofson presiding at the organ.

Miss Peggy Steen, sister of the bride, was pretty in a gown of azure blue brocade, wearing in her hair a pink and blue rose with nose-length veil and carrying a nosegay of pink carnations.

Mrs. Steen, mother of the bride, was charming in black crepe trimmed with colored sequins with hat to match and wearing a corsage of cream tea roses.

Jack McNulty acted as groomsmen and Sam Joy and Alex Gaunt were ushers.

The ceremony was performed beneath an arch prettily decorated with green leaves and pink rosebuds.

During the signing of the register Mrs. H. N. Brocklesby sang beautifully "All Joy Be Thine."

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held in the Boston cabaret, guests, received by Mr. and Mrs. Steen, extending their congratulations to the happy couple who stood beneath a white wedding bell in a corner decorated in pink and white.

The table was lovely, centred with a three-tier wedding cake with pink and white carnations in silver vases and tall pink tapers. Presiding at the urns were Mrs. Robert Dowther and Mrs. George Abbott with Mrs. J. H. Macey assisting and Miss Edith Watson cutting the wedding cake. Those serving were Misses Leah Basso-Bert and Mickey Skattebol and Mrs. Howard Wright, Mrs. George Peters, Mrs. Peter DeJong and Mrs. Tommy Fraser.

Mr. Jackson, after reading six telegrams of congratulation from friends unable to attend, proposed the toast to the bride which was responded to suitably by the groom.

Following the serving of refreshments dancing was enjoyed, music being furnished by Charles Balagno and George Brown.

Later the wharf was crowded with well-wishing friends as the happy young couple left aboard the Prince George for a honeymoon trip in the south. Miss Mickey Skattebol caught the bride's bouquet, thrown just as the boat was pulling out.

The bride wore a going-away outfit a brown broad-tail coat trimmed with Alaska Marten with green knitted suit and hat and accessories to match.

The bride, who has lived here since childhood, and the groom, a well known constable in the local police force, were the recipients of many beautiful wedding gifts testifying to their popularity.

On their return to the city Mr. and Mrs. Stewart will take up residence in the Angus Apartments.

C. G. Muller of Terrace is a business visitor in the city, having arrived from the interior on Thursday night's train.

ANNIVERSARY OF ARMISTICE

Expeditionary Force, was in charge of the guard of honor at the stone. The guards were Able Seaman Jack Armstrong R.C.N.V.R.; Private William Rothwell, Tenth Battalion C.E.F.; Private Victor Houston, Twenty-Seventh Battalion C.E.F. and Private William Sullivan, Sixteenth Canadian Scottish C.E.F.

Following the re-forming of the parade, ex-service people, Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve, 102nd Battery, Sea Cadets, Boy Scouts took part in the "March Past." Lieut. Col. S. D. Johnston, who received the salute, was accompanied by Lieut. Orme Stuart R.C.N.V.R., Capt. A. G. Rix, 102nd Battery; Jack Preece, president of the Canadian Legion, and City Commissioner W. J. Alder. This innovation proved of much interest to many spectators.

The Prince Rupert Boys' Band, under the direction of Bandmaster Robert Greenfield, again provided the music for the parade and the cenotaph service.

There were some eighty veterans in the parade which was in charge of Lieut. Col. S. D. Johnston with C. V. Evitt chairman of the parade committee. Besides the units already mentioned, members of the Canadian Legion Women's Auxiliary, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire and Loyal Order of the Moose were also in the parade, which was one of the largest and best ever held on Armistice Day here.

Mrs. Geoffrey Hamlin and son, Edgar, from Terrace are visitors in town, the guests of Mrs. James H. Thompson, Graham Avenue.

W. A. Johnson, transferred from here to Ocean Falls in the Forest Branch service, sailed last night on the Princess Adelaide for the paper town.

ARMISTICE OBSERVED

On Thursday afternoon the students of Booth Memorial High School met in the auditorium to commemorate the signing of the Armistice. The program started with the singing of "O Canada." Peter Allen, President of the Students' Council, then explained to the meeting the purpose of the service.

The President stated that the service was in memory of those men who had made the supreme sacrifice during the years 1914 to 1918. The speaker said that God should be thanked for the brilliant statesman at the head of the British Parliament. Had it not been for the forethought and diplomacy of Premier Chamberlain, the world might even now be in the chaotic darkness of another war. "Let us remember," he said, "the calamity that was recently averted and do our part to promote friendliness and good feeling among the nations of the world."

Then followed a solo by Miss Barbara Daniels "In Flanders Fields."

Principal Arthur Sutton spoke briefly concerning the meaning of Armistice. He portrayed to the students the scenes in England during the war, the soldiers leaving for the front, the soldiers on 24-hour leave, the postman delivering the fatal news of sons, husbands and brothers killed in the battle. In part, he said, the prevention of such another calamity rested with the rising generation of young people.

The principal's remarks were followed by singing "O God Our Help in Ages Past."

Tony Christian sounded the Last Post, which was followed by two minutes silence.

The meeting ended with "God Save the King."
