NEXT CONSERVATIVE LEADER

During the next few months there will be much string pulling and manipulating and feeling out of the people before a decision is finally made as to who is to succeed Right Hon. R. B. Bennett as leader of the Conservative party. So far the favorite seems to be Hon. W. D. Herridge, who married Mr. Bennett's sister. It is understood that the reason Mr. Bennett was unwilling to resign before this was that Mr. Herridge was not then ready to take over the position. Since that he has made several important speeches and his name has been discussed a good deal, the only name seriously mentioned in the running up to the time of Mr. Bennett's decision.

Senator A. D. McRae of Vancouver is a rich man and he did excellent organization work for the Conservatives at the election when they were returned to power and When Mr. Bennett became premier. Prior to that he deserted the party in British Columbia and tried to lead a new party and failed, being defeated miserably in the el-

Dr. R. J. Manion has been prominent in the party for years and is said to be receiving support. Possibly some person hitherto kept in the background may be a last minute candidate and a winner. The only British Columbia man outside of Senator McRae would possibly be Hon. H. H. Stevens, but he seems to have been almost forgotten and will not be likely to make a comeback. Premier Duplessis of Quebec is an outstanding figure in the East and may possibly be brought into the limelight. Our bet just now is an Herridge but as we have already said there is plenty of time for a change of line-up.

MR. BENNETT'S LEADERSHIP

Many Conservatives will regret the decision of Mr. Bennett to retire but they must realize that he was never quite suited to leading in a democratic country. He has wonderful ability but not sufficient political ability. He has neither the enthusiasm to become a great leader or the organizing ability to carry on as a plodder. Possibly his money has been a handicap to him and the same may handicap General McRae should he be seriously consid-

For the good of the party we believe Mr. Bennett has taken the wise move. He will be seventy years of age before there would be a possibility of his being elected to office which is an advanced age for such a responsibility.

It's interesting to know when reading the Daily News that the people of the whole district are doing the same.
