MISSING!—A LETTER

Sprightly Document Disappears From the City Hall.

Among Monday night's trenching tenders was a letter addressed to the Mayor and accompanying a bid by twenty-one men for the work. Its writer averred that all his gang were voters or could influence votes and went on to say that they were all going to work for Newton. He asked that the tender be considered and said that any extra yardage allowed would be appreciated. The letter caused laughter and was passed around the board. Last seen in the hands of Alderman Newton, it had next morning disappeared. Neither the Mayor nor the City Clerk could discover it.
