Armistice Ball Held At Armory

Three Hundred Guests Attended Delightful Affair

Under the auspices of the Warrent Officer, Non Commissioned Officers and men of the 102nd Heavy Battery, Royal Canadian Artillery, a most enjoyable dance was held at the Armory on Armistice night some three hundred persons were present and the smart dress "blues" of the artillerymen and formal black and white of the male guests contrasted with the delicate shades of ladies' gowns, making a most colorful effect.

The spacious hall was attractively decorated with flags and bunting and conspicuously displayed was the motto of Remembrance Day "Lest We Forget" in red poppies while mammoth poppies flanked the battery numeral "102nd", also of red poppies. Music was supplied by Charlie Balagno's orchestra.

Lt. Col. S. D. Johnston and Mrs. Jas Hadden led the Grand March while Sergeant J. A. Teng acted as master of ceremonies. Attractive favors were supplied the guests following were responsible for the affair:

General Chairman, Lance Bombardier Martin van Cooten.

Invitations, Lance Bombardier Walter Cross.

Decorations, Bombardier William Slater.

Punch Bowl, Gunner Elmer Thompson.

Refreshments, Sergeants T. A. McWaters and Jack Mussallem.

Novelties, Bombardier Walter Johnson.

A buffet supper was served at midnight.

Headed by Lieutenant Orme Stuart, the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve was well represented among the guests.
