Price fixing measures had been ne greatest mistake of the N.R.A., said the speaker, who described some of the ingenious methods which had been resorted to to "chisel" and evade the provisions for price fixing, production quotas and wages and hours. As a matter of fact it had become so bad with chiselling and corruption that, the speaker declared, it was actually a ood thing when the Supreme Court threw it out of the window. Personal observations by Prof. cknagel included one remark at he himself, despite enthussm at first about the N.R.A., was 28 longer in sympathy with what oing on. The librarian reported that, during the last month, circulation had increased and that many citizens had kindly donated books to the public library. Two books-"The Life of Sir Henry Morgan" by Brig.-General E. A. Cruikshank and "Retrospects of a Newspaper Person, by P. D. Ross-had been presented as gifts to the library by the authors. The Library Board has purchased a modern encyclopedia for the reference section.
