DEMOCRATIC RIFT

WASHINGTON-Posibility of a rift in the Democratic Party involving President Roosevelt and Postmaster-General James A. Farley appeared Wednesday night to hinge on the decision of Senator James P. Pope, Democrat, whether to run or not as an independent candidate in the November elections in Idaho. The New Deal senator, who was defeated by Representative D. Worth Clark in the recent Democrat primary, apparently, holds the key to a situation which may result in confirming whether Mr. Roosevelt and Farley have broken or are on the verge of a break.
