JUDGE: A bottle of what? Pass it up to me, please.

(The Judge examined the bottle and handed it on to the jury.)

JUDGE: (continuing): This is an amazing development. We have here an unopened bottle of Kruschen. (Turning to the Prisoner): When did you buy it?

PRISONER: This morning, my lord. I intended to take it with my coffee tomorrow and every day. I thought the might put me right.

JUDGE: Prisoner, your timely good sense has earned you your acquittel. You will leave this Court without a stain on your character. (At this juncture there was an outburst of clapping, which was rapidly suppressed.) You have yourself done precisely what I should have ordered you to do; you have adopted a good remedy for your present affliction, a splendid precaution against a recurrence of it. I am very glad. I have one word of advice to add: do not, on any account, miss the little daily dose of Kruschen-and then, indeed, you will be the happy possessor of good health for less than 1c a day.

PRISONER: Thank you, my lord. I shall never forget what you say.
