

"That ain't shootin', stupid—that's Kellogg's RICE KRISPIES"

SO CRISP they crackle in milk or cream

Children, especially, love Kellogg's Rice Krispies. They eat these tasty, toasted bubbles of rice without cooking. That tempting "snap-crackle-pop" sound arouses their interest—and their appetites! The only cereal so crisp it crackles in milk or cream! Rice Krispies are ready to serve—light, wholesome, and easily digested. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

A wire of protest has been sent to Olof Hanson, M.P. for Skeena at the unsightly hue of yellow which the new post office building is being painted. Similar protests are being made in other quarters. The general opinion appears to be that what is otherwise a splendid acquisition to the architecture of the city is being marred by the sudden decision to change the color from the attractive white originally planned to the sickly yellow.
