The Store With the Christmas Spirit

The Christmas Fair of the young people at First United Church drew another good-sized crowd on Saturday, the second night, and all had a very enjoyable time. The financial proceeds of the whole affair were very satisfactory.

Dramatic Club At High School To Stage Plays

The executive of the Dramatic Club of Booth Memorial High School met on Friday afternoon to complete the arrangements for the production of the Christmas plays to be held in the High School auditorium on December 8 and 9. There are to be three plays, one from the junior grades and two from the senior. Reports were received from the various committees and everything seems to be progressing satisfactorily.

MONEY TO DOMINION

Stable Institutions and Opportunities for Profitable Investment Drawing Funds from Abroad

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Foreign capital is again turning to Canada as a haven of refuge, Hon. J. L. Ilsley, Canadian Minister of National Revenue, told the Association of Life Insurance Presidents.

"Canada's geographical position, remote from the scene of war, her stable institutions, and the opportunities for profitable investment offered by her wide and varied resources, appear to be acting as a magnet for foreign capital," he said.

In the last few years Canada has repatriated a substantial volume of securities held abroad and that had added to the financial strength of the Dominion. This would be further reinforced "if new foreign capital comes to find, not a temporary refuge, but permanent investment in productive undertakings."

The minister emphasized the progressiveness and the stability of

Cadet Sunday Is Observed

Special Services At Local Salvation Army Corps

The semi-annual Corps Cadet Sunday was observed at the local Corps of The Salvation Army on Sunday. The morning service was in charge of Adjutant C. A. McKinnell, Candidate Walter Tomlinson of Cedarvale and Corps Cadets Gloria Swanson, Mary Herbert and Earl Pierce took part.

At the evening meeting all corps Cadets took some active part. New choruses were a feature of the meeting. A vocal trio composed of Ruth, Grace and Alfred Jones sang and short talks were given by Candidate Tomlinson, Cadets Clara and Mary Pierce. The Cadets Singing Party sang a very acceptable song, "Standing on the Promises of God."

Captain Ivan Halsey brought the message, basing his thoughts on the incident regarding the healing of Blind Bartimeus. A time of devotion followed the message prior to the conclusion of the meeting.

Vandalism And Petty Thieving

Removal of Ignition Keys From Motor Cars at Ketchikan is Latest Depredation

KETCHIKAN, Dec. 6.—Latest depredation in a wave of vandalism and petty thieving in Ketchikan was the removal of ignition keys from a dozen and a half motor cars. Juveniles are suspected.
