"but I'm having the best luck with my cooking lately, since I've taken to using St. Charles Evaporated Milk. Whenever I want a special creamy frosting, or a smooth-cooked sauce, I open a can of St. Charles. Seems like it makes things taste richer! ... St. Charles is a Borden's milk, that's why. Evaporated to double-richness from fresh full-cream milk. Doctors mention this brand of evaporated milk for babies' formulas, because they trust the name Borden's. Ask for Borden's St. Charles—and you'll be safe!"

BOY SCOUT MAN TALKS

William Solway Heard By Parent-Teachers' Association

The Prince Rupert Parent-Teachers' Association held its regular monthly meeting last evening in the Borden Street School. Mrs. W. C. Aspinall presided and there was a good attendance of parents and teachers.

The treasurer, Arthur Sutton, reported that the candy sale held prior to the Easter vacation had been very successful and that one hundred and eighty-five members were enrolled to date. Pictures were presented to Miss McKay's class in the Borden Street School and to Miss Normanton's class in the Booth Memorial School as prizes for obtaining the largest numbers of members for the association.

Arrangements were made to hold the annual tea on June 10 in the Booth Memorial School in conjunction with the display of work by the home economics and manual training departments of the schools.

Mrs. G. E. Moore is convener for the tea with Mrs. R. Wood and Mrs. H. Perkins assisting and Mrs. G. Ciccone is in charge of the home cooking. Girls of the home economics department in charge of Miss Hodgson will assist as servitors.

W. Solway, Boy Scout Commissioner, was the guest speaker and, in the course of an interesting address, made an urgent plea for a reform in education which would train boys to take a worthy place in the trades and industrial life of the community and nation. Respect for parents and elders and for the home must be inculcated in boys and girls and, if Canada was to prosper, parents must take action without fear or favor to raise the standard of family life and to maintain that solidarity of home life which had made the empire great and which had inspired pioneers in their work of laying the foundation of the Canadian nation. It was no use blaming the government for prevailing conditions in economic and family life. Pointing to the so-called higher standard of living as a measure of progress, the speaker said this was a fallacy. Even with the modern luxuries, it was not possible to have a high standard of living as long as the family life

Juvenile Star Featured in "45 Fathers"—Annabella in Intrigue Film Rounds Out Bill

Jane Withers is the star in another of her boisterous comedies, "45 Fathers," which tops this midweek double bill program at the Capitol Theatre. The other end of the double bill is "Dinner at the Ritz," featuring Annabella, the popular new European star.

In "45 Fathers" forty-five bachelor club members sign up as Jane Withers' guardians. They try to make a lady out of her but she almost makes a wreck out of them. When they send her to a finishing school, it is about the finish of everybody. Jane, in spite of her ill luck in doing bad whenever she tries to be good, manages to save one of her wealthy friends from the atonement from the entanglement of a scheming society siren intent upon getting his money. The Hartmans, eccentric ventriloquists, dance satirists and sleight-of-hand artists, also play an important part in the picture, the cast of which includes Louise Henry and Thomas Beck.

"Dinner at the Ritz" is an exciting story of dangerous intrigue which whirls Annabella from brilliant salons of Paris through gaming rooms of Monte Carlo to a luxurious private yacht on the Mediterranean. A lovely carefree girl one day, Annabella is a daring adventuress the next. Paul Lukas, David Niven and Romney Brent head the supporting cast.

of the nation was impaired and lowered. It was the duty of the common people to train their boys and girls in the right way, to honor and serve God, to respect honest labor and those things which were worth while and fundamental in the life of the community and nation. If this duty was performed faithfully, Canada would prosper, if neglected, there must be retrogression.

During the evening there was a most enjoyable musical program. Miss Edith Smith impressed the audience with skillfully rendered pianoforte solos interpreting descriptions of selections being given by Miss A. Way. Vocal solos by Miss I. Hodgson, accompanied by Mrs. J. G. McKinley, also added much to the pleasure of the evening.

Money was voted to provide prizes for the home economics and manual training display. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting and a pleasant time was spent in conversation.

MODEL YACHT RACE IN JUNE

To Be Run on Sunday When Large Party of Tourists is in City—May Form Club

At a meeting held last night in the office of Capt. J. R. Elfert, the harbor master, who presided, it was decided to hold the model yacht race for the Prince George Cup on June 26 if weather permits. On that day the steamer Prince Robert will be in port with a large party of tourists to whom the event is expected to prove of interest.

The race will be open to all comers and classes of yachts. It will be run along somewhat different lines than in previous years as the rectangular course has been found to be not entirely satisfactory in the past.

It is expected that other cups will be competed for this year and that prizes will be offered by business interests.

There will be another meeting next Wednesday when entries for the race are to be in and at which the formation of a club will be considered.

Mrs. James Denholme of Tiel arrived in the city on the Prince John this afternoon from the Queen Charlotte Islands.

Carl Kirmis, Massett hotel proprietor and merchant, is a business visitor in town, having arrived from the Queen Charlotte Islands on the Prince John today.

Capt. Gerald H. Barry of Victoria, inspector of Indian Schools, arrived in the city on the Prince John today after spending the past couple of weeks inspecting schools on the Queen Charlotte Islands.
