THE EUROPEAN SITUATION

If yesterday's dispatches are true that the nations of the Spanish non-intervention committee have agreed on the main features of the revised British plan for evacuation of volunteers with Russia also in accord, the European picture it, indeed, a good deal brighter — brighter than it has been in many a long month. Not only will the chances of an early restoration of peace in Spain be much better but it is possible that common ground may have been reached on which to deal with other international troubles that are agitating the world today.

If the British plan is accepted as a basis of agreement in regard to Spain, it will, indeed, be a great triumph for the Chamberlain government the policy which has been castigated and scoffed at so much of late. A man of less courage and less perspective might have weakened long ere this and there have been days of late when weakening might have meant serious consequences—even so terrible a consequence as embroiling the whole world in war.

There have been those who predicted that subsequent events would justify Chamberlain's course. Possibly, we may find out sooner than we expected that his course was the right one. If the other nations—even Russia—come to agree with his plan, where is the foundation of real criticism?

Some day a savior is going to be found for this perplexed old world with all its sores. By any means might this savior be the calm, unperturbed, patient long-suffering Chamberlain?

A SHOWDOWN

As Premier Pattullo says, it appears that there must be a showdown without much further delay in regard to who is going to accept the responsibility for single unemployed who drift into British Columbia. We have expressed our belief before this that they are a federal responsibility and we feel this is the general belief in regard to them. It seems to us that there is no good reason for Ottawa continuing to pass them on to Victoria.

Ever since unemployment and relief has become general in Canada, there is no doubt that British Columbia has been burdened with more than its share. If Ottawa does not wish to take care of the interprovincial drifters itself, it seems that the federal authority should at least co-operate in endeavouring to place the responsibility where it belongs instead of foisting it on to British Columbia just because this coast happens to be the most pleasant place in the Dominion in which to idle away the time.

It's interesting to know when reading the Daily News that the people of the whole district are doing the same. Audit Bureau of Circulations. It is the only paper north of Vancouver and west of Edmonton holding membership in these organizations.

Last night's match in the Dominion Day Football Cup series resulted in a win for the Merchants over the Canadian Legion by two goals to one and, as a result, the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve and the Merchants will contest the final for the trophy on July 1. There was a good attendance of spectators who watched a fine game.

The Legion had the better of the opening period but there was a sad absence of shooting. Simundsen took a couple of corners well but Gomez cleared. Merchants broke away and Vink shot past while Smith was too high. Howe missed several good chances. Then, from Cameron's corner kick, Bill Murray turned the ball past his own goalie to give the Merchants the lead.

The second half found the Merchants having the better of the game. O'Neill shot over and later hit the crossbar. Vance did well to save a high shot and then Vink missed a grand chance. Howe at last got through and scored from an almost impossible angle. Cameron tested Vance who saved but later a low shot from Cameron beat him to give the Merchants the lead. Vink missed a chance to increase the lead and then Legion pressed strongly for Murray to head just wide of the upright. From a penalty, Murray shot wide. Merchants had the best of the closing minutes but failed to add to the score. J. S. Wilson refereed.

Teams were:
Legion—Vance; W. Murray, J. Currie; J. Currie (jr.), Sam Currie, McKay; Simundsen, Campbell, Howe, Scherk, Comadina.

Merchants—Krause; Parsons, F. Gomez; Veitch, Ferguson, Gillis; Cameron, O'Neill, Smith, Vink, D. Gomez.

Linesmen—P. Doherty and W. Gomez.

Vance did well in goal for Legion and W. Murray and Jim Currie were safe backs. Murray was unlucky to score against his own team and also to miss a penalty but he played a good game. McKay was the best of the Legion halves with Sam Currie showing clever touches. Forward the line was ineffective. There was little combination and not a decent shot to test Krause.

Parsons and Gomez played their usual strong game for Merchants. Parsons had stopped the ball with his body but, as it was getting away from him, he handled it. The halves still do too much heavy kicking. The forwards are fast and clever but get offside too much. Cameron, Smith and Gomez were all good and O'Neill turned in an excellent performance for his first match with his new team.

The referee might very easily have ordered Murray to retake the penalty kick for Krause did not remain stationary on the line after the whistle was blown. Fortunately for him, two of the Legion men came inside the penalty area before the ball was kicked. Players should remember that no one but the taker of the penalty kick may be inside the penalty area until the ball has been kicked. They may not go in as soon as the whistle is blown.

TUNNEY IS FOR LOUIS

Jack Johnson, However, Likes Schmeling—Brown Bomber Is Favorite

NEW YORK, June 22:—Gene Tunney, one former world's heavy-weight boxing champion, favors Joe Louis, the present champion to retain his title against Max Schmeling, the former champion, tonight.

Jack Johnson, another former champion, likes Max Schmeling to win back the crown. Louis is still a slight favorite in betting. If Schmeling, who is thirty-two years of age, should defeat Louis, he would be the first heavy-weight champion ever to regain the crown after losing it.

Louis weighed in at 198 3/4 pounds today for the fifteen-round bout which takes place in Yankee Stadium. Schmeling scaled 193 pounds.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pints of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels, gas blocks up your stomach. You get constipated. Harmful poisons go into the body, and you feel sour, weak and the world looks pink.

A mere bowel movement doesn't always get at the cause. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pints of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless and gentle, they make the bile flow freely. They do the work of colonel but have no calomel or mercury in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name! Stubbornly refuse anything else.
