> Vancouver by air. As for community development at Zeballos, the young barrister tells of the putting in of a dam the town. A diesel power unit is expected soon. The telephone service to Vancouver will be working within a few days. Construction work is booming. Three hotels are up. A couple of pool halls are getting in shape for opening. Stores and offices are being erected Squatters' shacks are increasing beyond the townsite.

People might think it rains a lot in Prince Rupert but" it's got ab solutely nothing on this place, writes the vounger Mr. Alder. There is plenty of mud and water on the roads but there is gold in the hills and the trucks some how or other manage to navigate the roads and bring out the precious metal. There are frequent reports of new strikes in the vicinity and the Wass Lake country is now opening up.

The congregation of First Presbyterian Church, at a meeting last night, extended a call to Rev. H. G. Funston of Stewart to the pulpit Grant Hollingworth who left some time ago for Medicine Hat. Mr. Funston, whose name was the only one proposed, has already intimated; his willingness to accept a call should it be extended.

The induction of the new pastor will be held on April 26 with Rev. David Lister of Vancouver, at present supplying the pulpit, officiating.
