Ready For Raids On Old Windsor

Castle Staff Have Their Own Precautions and Reseue Squads

WINDSOR, England, June 10: (CP)-The 500 persons who work and live in Windsor Castle have organized their own Air Raid Precautions squad.

A survey has been made of suitable places in basements and corridors which can be converted into shelters and plans have been completed to make these gas and splinter proof.

There are two decontamination squads and two squads for rescue work. One room in the big castle has been allocated for a First-Aid Clearing Station and this is being used also for a lecture room. The castle's fire brigade has been augmented and a fire inspector enkon, leaves on this evening's train; Mrs. H. Oakes and child of Suri gaged. He has decided on providing Prince George for a trip to Van-, nearby Thames.
