LOCAL NEWS

Moose members, special meeting tonight, initiation by Ketchikan Lodge at 8. (65)

Allan D. Vance returned to the city on the Princess Louise this afternoon from Vancouver.

At its meeting yesterday, the Prince Rupert Rotary Club decided to make a small grant to aid the Boy Scouts in their activities during the coming summer.

BLACKHEADS
Blackheads simply dissolve and disappear by this one simple, safe and sure method. Get two ounces of peroxine powder from any drug store, sprinkle it on a hot, wet cloth, rub the face gently—every blackhead will be gone. Have a Hollywood complexion.

Rev. J. C. Jackson, pastor of First United Church, returned to the city on the Princess Louise this afternoon from a brief trip to Vancouver.

A. C. Blanchard, accountant for the Yukon and White Pass Route at Skagway, and Mrs. Blanchard were passengers aboard the Princess Norah yesterday afternoon going through to Seattle for a trip.

The power tug Jedway, Capt. Johnny Hartlin, got as far as Metlakatla yesterday morning with a tow of seven sections or some 250,000 feet of logs from the Ketchum logging camp at Alpha Bay, Ogden Channel, and was awaiting better weather conditions before continuing to the Big Bay mill with the tow.

Dr. C. A. Armstrong of Port Simpson visited Port Essington this week in his capacity as medical health officer, there being an epidemic of measles at the Skeena River town. Accompanied by F. C. Freeman and R. T. Vidler, the latter a member of the staff of the Hudson Bay Co. store at Port Simpson, Dr. Armstrong was here Tuesday on the way to Essington and again on Thursday returning to Simpson.

Jack Littlepage and P. Mulford, Seattle mining engineers, after a week's visit to southeastern Alaska to look over mining properties on behalf of interests they represent, were her aboard the Princess Norah yesterday afternoon returning south. Mr. Littlepage, in about a month's time, expects to be back in the north to visit the Portland Canal district where he was once located.

"TOVARICH" ON SCREEN

Famous Stage Play Presented as Picture Here This Week-End

"Tovarich," famous comedy dealing with an exiled Russian Prince and Grand Duchess, which has been playing on the stage for several years, comes in film form to the Capitol Theatre this week-end starring Claudette Colbert and Charles Boyer. The picture received a blue ribbon award as the best show of December 1937. Its elaborate settings are a feature.

Miss Colbert is a maid in "Tovarich." But she isn't the usual maid. She's just doing it because she was a Grand Duchess first and ran out of money and needed the caviar and champagne she was accustomed to. Charles Boyer gets a comedown, too. He appears as Miss Colbert's husband, a Russian Prince reduced to butling for a living—and caviar and champagne.

Besides the two stars, the cast of "Tovarich," coming to the Capitol Friday, includes such notable names as Anita Louise, Basil Rathbone, Melville Cooper, Isabel Jeans, Morris Carnovsky, Montagu Love, Heather Thatcher, Maurice Murphy, Reine Riano and Victor Killian.

Union steamer Cardena, Capt John Boden, is due in port at 6:30 this evening from the south and will sail at 9 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

GUARD BABY'S HEALTH WITH A G-E REFRIGERATOR

The only safe way to preserve food is in a temperature always below 50°. Harmful bacteria multiply rapidly above 50° and you can't always tell by the look of food or even the smell or taste when it is fit to eat. With a G-E Refrigerator you KNOW that baby's food is safe — and you save money, too, on food bills and operating cost. Easy terms make it easy to own one.

BUY NOW and get first-hand knowledge about the convenience of Electric Refrigeration —then enter the big G-E $10,000 contest. Full details at any of our stores.
