JUST A FOLK TALE

An Arab folk tale relates that Pestilence once met a caravan upon the desert-way to Bagdad. "Why," asked the Pierce, veteran native missionary. Arab chief, "must you hasten to Bagdad?"

"To take 5000 lives," Pestilence replied.

Upon the way back from the City of the Caliphs. Pestilence and the caravan met again. "You deceived me," the chief said angrily. "Instead of 5000 lives, you took 50,000!" "Nay," said Pestlence. "Five thousand and not one

In extending civic greetings to Commissioner and Mrs. Carpenter, City Commissioner W. J. Alder paid tribute to the work of the Army. particularly in connection with social service. Here in Prince Rupert it had been of invaluable assistance; in meeting local problems. It was! always on the march, always rendy; for a fight and always ready to look after its camp followers. Since the early days it had been doing good work in Prince Rupert.

Dr. Joseph T. Mandy esteemed it! an honor in being associated with) the welcoming of the distinguished; visitors. The spirit of true Christianity was exemplified by the Salvation Army in its unselfish work of extending the helping hand of brotherly love. The salt of their earth, Army people had brought happiness not only in Prince Rupert but throughout the world! through its ministrations to the unfortunate. Dr. Mandy presented; to Mrs. Carpenter a handsome polished rock as a significant memento; of her visit to Prince Rupert.

Vote of Thanks

Also heard briefly were Ex-Mayor! M. M. Stephens and P. H. Linzey, Mr. Stephens proposed a vote of work of the Army.

An interesting feature of the evening's proceedings was the making of presentations to Commissioner, and Mrs. Carpenter by Rev. W. H. Mr. Pierce made quaint and humorous remarks. Mrs. Carpenter received a native fruit spoon made of mountain goat's horn. Commissioner Carpenter was given a nativel fish spoon of maple.

The musical part of the evening's program included selections by the Prince Rupert Philharmonic Orchestra under direction of A. C. Cameron; violin duet by Miss Nellie! Lawrence and A. C. Cameron, accompanied by Miss Eileen Hamblin and vocal solos by Mrs. Jarvis Mc-Leod, accompanied by Miss Marybelle Stiles.
