"GARDEN OF MOON" HERE

Entertaining Picture is Feature Offering at Capitol This Mid-Week

Comedy, romance and music make a very entertaining picture of "Garden of the Moon," mid-week feature picture at the Capitol Theatre here. Heading an impressive cast are Pat O'Brien, Margaret Lindsay and John Payne.

The story deals with a hot and tricky feud between a hotel manager, played by O'Brien, and an impertinent young band leader, whose part is taken by Payne. Joe Venuti's swing band and several well known comedians and entertainers are used in presentation of five song hits—"Confidentially," "Love is Where You Find It," "Lady on the Two Cent Stamp," "Girl Friend of the Whirling Dervish" and "Garden of the Moon."

The music is inserted gracefully into the story without any distortion of plot structure.

The picture is based on the story of the same name which apoeared in the Saturday Evening Post.

So we quizzed the city Editor

With so many quiz contests around, Horace and I thought we'd get out and do a little ourselves, so we started on the city editor. (Great fellow; smart, too!)

"What, in your opinion," we asked, "is the reason so many Canadians prefer Monogram Gin?"

"That's easy," said the "Ed", looking up over a brace of jingles. "It's because it's the supreme refreshment."

"Right!" we said. "100%. After all, you can pay more, but you can't buy a better Gin than Monogram."
