WAS VERY PROMINENT

Senator Albert Joseph Brown Was Leader as Barrister, Financier and Industrialist

MONTREAL, Nov. 18: (CP)—Senator Albert Joseph Brown, who is dead here, was for many years prominent not only as a barrister but as a financier and industrialist.

Senior member of the legal firm of Brown, Montgomery and McMichael, advocates, which he organized in 1907, the late Senator Brown was a vice-president and director of the Royal Bank of Canada, a director of the Montreal City and District Savings Bank; vice-president of the Montreal Trust Co., vice-president of the Canadian Trust Co., and a director of the Dominion Bridge Co., Steel Company of Canada Ltd., the Northern Electric Co., Abitibi Pulp & Paper Co. Ltd., Foundation Co. of Canada Ltd., Paton Manufacturing Co. Ltd. and Holt Renfrew Co. Ltd. He was also vice-president of the Dominion Engineering Works Ltd. and the Canada Steamship Lines Ltd.

In addition to his legal and business interests, Senator Brown also found time for educational and philanthropic enterprises and was a governor of McGill University as well as of Montreal General Hospital, Children's Memorial Hospital, Alexandra Hospital and Verdun Protestant Hospital.

Born at Windsor, Quebec, July 8, 1861, Senator Brown was educated at St. Francis College, Richmond, Morrin College, Quebec, and McGill University. He graduated as a Bachelor of Arts from McGill in 1883 and was gold medallist in 1886. Called to the Quebec bar in 1886, he was created Queen's Counsel in 1899, and the Doctorate of Letters and Laws was conferred upon him by his alma mater in 1923. He was batonnier of the Montreal Bar in 1911 and batonnier-general for the province of Quebec in 1911.

Senator Brown married Josephine Home, daughter of Joseph Home of Quebec, in 1888. He was a Conservative and a Presbyterian.

Senator Brown's clubs were Mount Royal, St. James, Forest & Stream, Montreal; Mount Bruno Country and St. George's, Sherbrooke; Garrison, Quebec, and York, Toronto. He was also identified with the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association.

Blind Veteran Euchre Expert

Plays With Pack of Cards Marked With Braille

MELBOURNE, Nov. 18: (CP)—Sightless George Watson, Great War veteran, relies on sensitive fingertips to retain his reputation as one of the best card players in the Soldiers' club here.

Playing with a pack of cards marked with Braille, he recently won a euchre tournament without losing a game.

A keen bridge player, Watson tends a garden at his home and can tell every flower he has planted in it by touch.

When playing bridge, the dummy is read out to the blind veteran only once and his fellow players are required to state the suit and value of the cards as they play them.

CODE OF AMATEURS

Broadening of Definition May Mean Return of Hockey, Lacrosse And Basketball To A. A. U.

FORT WILLIM, Nov. 18: (CP)—The Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, in annual convention here last night broadened the amateur code by approving a resolution reading: "No one shall lose amateur status by reason of any matter or action in connection with a sport, the recognized internation body of which permits of such a matter or action, notwithstanding that such matter or action constitutes an infringement of the definition of an amateur or the amateur rules hereinafter set forth."

Officers of the Union believe this action may pave the way for a return of hockey, basketball and lacrosse bodies to the Amateur Athletic Union fold. The Union has been suffering through the lack of financial support from these bodies.

There has been the perennial discussion of the definition of an amateur at the convention.

CANTON SUBJECTED TO SERIES OF AIR RAIDS

Hundreds of women and children were killed in savage air raids staged by Japanese fliers against Canton before its capture. The chief features of the bomb-shattered city are shown on the above map. The main objectives of the attackers were the Canton-Hankow and Canton-Kowloon railroads and the Wongsha and Canton stations. Britain protested to Tokio the flight of invading airplanes over the International Settlement on Shameen Island.
