MACK REALTY CO. MOVES
Enterprising Firm is Today Established in Fine New Premises.

New Year 1912 will find the well-known sign of the Mack Realty Company well established over their handsome new premises in the Westholme Business Block, Second Avenue. Today, the last business day of 1911, the firm transfers to these premises which are beautifully fitted in golden oak throughout, with all the latest office equipment, decorations, furnishings and finish to match. The private office of Mr. J. Lorne McLaren, head of the firm, is furnished in Mission style, and the whole suite forms one of the largest real estate and insurance offices in the city, with every facility for the handling of immense business. The Mack Realty Co. represents 15 of the strongest fire insurance companies in the world. Their Realty Department is under management of Mr. K. J. Sheratin, who is well known here, and their accounting department is managed by Mr. C. V. Evitt, another old-timer, late of the Union Bank staff. Mr. J. Lorne McLaren himself is one of the business pioneers of Prince Rupert as well as one of the largest holders of real estate in the city, and his confidence in Prince Rupert is so solid that he has not yet turned over a single lot of his holdings. As agents for the Westholme business block, for the new opera house next door and in their own far-reaching business lines the Mack Realty Co. bids fair to do credit to their fine new premises.

Inspection Visit.
General Superintendent Mehan has returned from a visit of inspection up the line, but leaves today on another trip over the steel. He reports excellent progress with construction. Steel will be through the Kitselas tunnel in a day or two now. Mr. Mehan had no notification at all regarding the Skeena Crossing strike, which affects only Foley, Welch & Stewart men.
