Appears Likely That Crisis is to Develop Over This Matter-France Demands Satisfactory Reply-Disorders in Tunis Itself

PARIS, December 5: (CP)— Premier Daladier said today that France has no intention of giving up any part of her territory. Thus he answered personally the Italian clamor for Corsica and Tunis. At the same time, Virginion Gayda, frequently a spokesman for Premier Mussolini, indicated in Rome today that Italy would make demand on France at some future date but did not disclose plans or date. Meanwhile, the Italian campaign for Tunisia gains momentum. Gayda indignantly denied that Foreign Minister Ciano had been forced to back down in talks with British and French ambassadors.
