ACCREDITED HIGH SCHOOLS

A number of parents, who have read in the press about Accredited High Schools have asked me what this means and whether our High front page of last Thursday's Vancouver Province, which I received gave a brief farewell message I think is misleading. Therefore, may I give a brief explanation through the medium of your paper

the High School Accrediting Board

In December 1930, the High School Teachers' Association unanimously passed a resolution endorsing the principle of High School Accrediting and set up a commit tee to study the whole question in all possible detail.
