From The Waterfront

Inaugurating the company's schedule of fortnightly sailings between Vancouver and Prince Rupert via the Queen Charlotte Islands, C.N.R. steamer Prince Charles, Capt. James Watt, is due in port at 2:45 this afternoon and will be here until 10:30 Saturday night when she will sail on her return south over the same route. The Prince Charles is bringing among her passengers some tourists who will transfer to the steamer Prince Rupert tomorrow to make the round trip to Anyox and Stewart and thence south Saturday evening.

Fresh fish landings at the Boston fish pier for the month of May, according to figures received here, amounted to 19,960,500 pounds.

TERRACE

Dr. Stanley Mills returned to Terrace on Saturday from a visit to Toronto, having received three or four weeks ago an urgent call to his old home where his mother was seriously ill. While away Dr. Mills engaged in work with S'r Frederick Banting at Banting Institute, Toronto.

Terrace people were shocked this week to learn of the fatal accident on Vancouver Island, while working, of Charlie Lindstrom, son of Mr and Mrs. Lindstrom of Remo He was a fine young fellow in his early twenties.

The Skeena River appears to be acting in the present year mere moderate than usual. The spring freshet up to date has not reached even the medium high level of 1937 and, remembering its furious performance in 1936, those who live near its banks are inclined to consider themselves fortuniate.

Smithers High

SMITHERS, June 16:-Smithers High School students and exstudents assembled in the Anglican Hall to enjoy the most formal annual affair held in Smithers. This was the school's fourth annual dance and invitations were sent to all students and ex-students who had attended the Smithers High School during the period of fifteen years in which V. Crockett has been its principal.

The hall was beautifully decorated in purple and gold—the High School colors, no detail being over-

Miss Mabel Berg's Orchestra opened the program with snappy modern music at 9:30. Refreshments were served at 11:30 and this was followed by a piano solo by Miss Betty Jones, 17 year old High School student. The home waltz ended the program at 1:30 a.m.

The committee that so successfully conducted the affair consisted of Joe Cunliffe, president, Student's Council; Jack Furness, chairman; Cliff Emerson, decorations; Elsie Erickson, invitations; Betty Giraud, refreshments; Thelda McEwen, music, and Jean! Peterson, finances.
