Under these circumstances it is really wonderful what has been achieved here. The showing made Monday night was excellent in view of the circumstances. The unit is help in weeding the ground met being steadily built up and officers and men seem to worl together with splendid co-operative spirit.

MINISTER OF DEFENSE

We are looking for great things from the present Minister of National Defense, Hon. Ian Mackenzie. He has at any rate recognized the stragetic importance of Prince Rupert and, if his plans are carried out, we shall eventually be in a position to keep a possible enemy from raiding our city, destroying the dry dock and seizing the railway. We hope that among other things the minister will see the desirability of building a highway from Prince Rupert to connect at Terrace with the provincial highway. We realize that there is oppsition to many of his plans but we think he has done wonders on this coast so far.
