What will be the end of the Spanish embroglio? It seems evident that Italy and Germany do not intend to keep out of the dispute. Fighting still goes on and just, when it seems as it the end is near the fighting flares up again and the slaughter continues. The difficulty is that both sides have received help from the outside but especially the insurgents.

The government has been sending out propaganda literature in one form or another during the past year or more, latterly showing how the government has been carrying on in a democratic manner, improving conditions while fighting against the invader.

To the real outsider who knows nothing of the conditions except from publications from various sources, mostly on the government side, it would seem as if Russia fomented the trouble at the beginning by encouraging the Man in the Moon Spanish socialist and communist government to enter on a L policy of despoliation. #### NO UNITED FRONT.

J. S. Woodsworth, national leader of the C.C.F., is general prosperity. There's a gamstrongly opposed to the United Front which means he ble for anybody would not like union with the Communists. He says it If you want a big time was a similar union in Germany that gave rise to Hitler- A rollicking old fig time ism. He declared in Vancouver that all this talk of a A time that you'll remember United Front came from the Communists. The C.C.F., Mr. wany a year You'll come and have a fast time Woodsworth said, believes firmly in social democracy.

It seems as if the C.C.F. was steadily developing along A time to talk about for many a the lines laid down by their late British Columbia leader, Rev. Robert Connell, who, while a socialist of very long standing, did not see the possibility of bringing about any immediate plan for socialising the country. His idea was coat for you?" to do so gradually rather than by a sudden overthrow of Jane: "No ma'am, she bought it." the present system, as the Marxians advocate. It was because he favored this plan that the C.C.F. threw him over First Guest: "I'm sure I don't and chose another leader. He was a "firm believer in social know why they call this hotel the democracy" but so far we have beard no gracection of 'Palms,' do you? I've never seen democracy" but so far we have heard no suggestion of a salm anywhere near the place" throwing Rev. J. S. Woodworth over and appointing a Second Guest: "You'll see them more radical leader.

Evidently Mr. Woodsworth sees the danger of extreme measures. Extremists on one side develop extremists on the gv the other. Even the Communists are beginning to realize this and are moderating their tone.

Pittsburg Has Five and a Half Game Margin in National League-Yanks Same In American

PITTSBURG, Aug. 13: (CP) --Pittsburg Pirates, by losing to the Chicago Cubs yesterday, had their margin of National League leadership reduced to five-and-a-hali games over New York Giants who defeated the Phillies. The third place Chicago Cubs continued their pennant drive as a result of their victory with the fourth place Cincinnati Reds continuing in place by eking out a close night game victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.
