Soviets in City and Farm Mark 21st Birthday of Red Regime

By WADE WERNER Associated Press Staff Writer

MOSCOW, Nov. 17: (CP)-Having just celebrated its 21st pirthday with all its cities, towns and villages beflagged, Soviet Russia looked back on the struggle to transform a backward agricultural country into a highly-industrial nation with motorized farms and a population accustomed to travel in airplanes.

Pravda, the Communist Party newspaper, estimated that the Sov-....... 7 p.m | iet Union's capital investments in Naas River and Port Simpson the past 10 years amounted to some (000,000,000) with another 40,000,-November 4 and 18 ...... 9:30 p.m. 000,000 rubles devoted to construc-
