DO YOU EVER OVER-INDULGE?

Over-eating and drinking usually mean a bad night and an unpleasant morning after. But not for those who know the "cheer-up" value of Eno's "Fruit Salt". As far back as mid-Victorian days, when eating and drinking were favourite indoor sports, Eno saved the old-timers many a sleepless night . . . many a bad morning after.

A dash of Eno in a glass of water morning and night goes a long way in offsetting the effects of over-indulgence. Eno sweetens the stomach, sharpens the appetite, keeps the intestines free from poisonous waste, and makes you feel good all over. Eno forms no habit. It is pleasant to take and acts gently, normally, effectively. Remember, life today calls for Eno's "Fruit Salt".
