NIGHT COUGHS due to colds... checked without "dosing". VICKS VAPORUB PROVED BY 2 GENERATIONS

For drunkenness, Fred Elstermann was fined $25 by Magistrate McClymont in city police court yesterday afternoon.

B. Myvold of Winnipeg, general agent of the Norwegian America Line, is a visitor in the city on company business, having arrived on Tuesday night's train.

Edward Louden was fined $50 with option of thirty days' imprisonment, by Magistrate McClymont in city police court yesterday afternoon for supplying liquor to Indians.

Mrs. G. Cavanaugh arrived in the city yesterday from Vancouver to take up residence at Digby Island with her son, William Cavanaugh, who recently joined the staff of the government radiotelegraph station.

Douglas Stevenson, who has been spending the winter in town at the auditing office of George Rorie, will leave by tomorrow evening's train for Vanderhoof enroute back to the Manson Creek mining country. He will fly in from Fort St. James.

Fred Coram, popular assistant purser of the steamer Prince Rupert, is receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter at Vancouver Tuesday morning. He received word while coming north on this week's voyage. Mrs. Coram and child are doing nicely.

Mike Gurvich and George Casey were each fined $5 in city police court by Magistrate McClymont this morning, the former for assault and the latter for vagrancy. Casey charged Gurvich and Gurvich charged Casey. Gurvich pleaded guilty by reason of provocation. Casey pleaded not guilty.

Titus Campbell, Indian, was fined $10 by Magistrate McClymont in city police court this morning for drunkenness, being assessed an additional $10 for refusing to tell where he obtained his liquor. Campbell paid his fine this morning rather than spend two consecutive terms of ten days in jail. Edward Sylvarnes, for supplying Campbell, was fined $50 with option of thirty days' imprisonment.

Prince Rupert's militiamen, members of the 102nd Heavy Battery, Royal Canadian Artillery, are to have their annual inspection on Monday evening. Major W. R. M. Stone, officer commanding the Royal Canadian Artillery at Esquimalt, will carry out the inspection for the district officer commanding.

Miss Betty Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Anderson of Terrace, arrived in the city on the Prince Rupert yesterday morning from Vernon, where she has been in the employ of the Hudson Bay Co. for the past couple of years, and proceeded by the evening train to Terrace where she will spend the coming month with her parents. She will be married at Terrace to George Edward McAdams.
