RANGERS IN LEAD

Hockey Tide Turns More Favorably To Montreal Canadiens and Detroit Red Wings

NEW YORK, Nov. 25: (CP)-A six to two victory over the Toronto Maple Leafs last night enabled the New York Rangers to climb into first place in the National Hockey League standing.

At Montreal, the Canadiens got their first credit point of the season! when they played an overtime tie; draw with the New York Americans, the score being two all. The Can-l adiens scored their two goals in the first period but were unable to count again during the last two periods in the course of which the Americans equalized. The tie count put the Amerks on even terms with Royal Lunch defeated Gyro Club the Chicago Black Hawks and Bos-

LEARNING THÈIR TRADES UNDER GOVERNMEN T SPONSORSHIP

Given an opportunity to learn trades through Ontario government projects under the Dominion-provincial youth training movement, the young men pictured here are making excellent use of their tuition period. The movement is jointly sponsored by federal and provincial Parliaments as a means of preparing unemployed youths for profitable positions in industry. The young man at the left is gathering his knowledge in a Brantford, Ont., moulding plant while at the right, age and youth meet to co-ordinate their knowledge and abilities in a machine shop. The tutor in this case is a farm machinery firm's veteran employee.
