

"I hate to brag..."

...but I'm having the best luck with my cooking lately, since I've taken to using St. Charles Evaporated Milk. Whenever I want a special creamy frosting, or a smooth-cooked sauce, I open a can of St. Charles. Seems like it makes things taste richer! ... St. Charles is a Borden's milk, that's why. Evaporated to double-richness from fresh full-cream milk. Doctors mention this brand of evaporated milk for babies' formulas, because they trust the name Borden's. Ask for Borden's St. Charles—and you'll be safe!

Youthful Boxers Put Up Good Display at Recreational Centre Last Night

The boxing tournament at the Prince Rupert physical education and recreation centre last night attracted a crowd of some 150 persons and the show was a splendid one. In all the events there was a fine display of sportsmanship even though two or three of the boys received "shiners." The best display of boxing of the evening was that by Pat Berry and Albert Mah while the fastest and most exciting bout of the tournament was a three two-minute rounder in which Bill Long took two out of three rounds from Don McCouper.

In the main event Jummy Bryant and Ted Noble, both at 155 pounds, did six two-minute rounds with Bryant getting the call.

In the tournament Victor Norberg over Harry Lundquist, Bill Long over D. McCouper, V. Norberg, Stan Scherk over Foster Husoy, Albert Mah over Bob Peachey, Stan Scherk and Bill Long were the winners, these being all three two-minute rounders.

In one exhibition bout of four two-minute rounds Pat Berry met Frank Gomez. Other exhibition bouts, three two-minute rounders were: Marcel Blain vs. Robert Rudderham, Lester Grimble vs. Bill Barker, Jack Wearmouth vs. George Greenwood, Steve Frost vs. Darrow Gomez.

A three three-minute round exhibition of wrestling by Emil Blain and Ken Schubert also proved interesting.

The show was under direction of Harry Gordon-Cooper and Albert Mah. Referee was Benny Windle and judges A. W. Newman and J. J. Judge with Max Heilbronner acting as time-keeper.
