Twenty-Five Years Ago

Arrivals from the north on the Princess Sophia yesterday afternoon stated that the new Chisana gold diggings will make a busy camp of Whitehorse this winter.

The "Ne Temere" decree was discussed by Rev. F. W. Kerr at evening service in First Presbyterian Church at the Empress Theatre last night.

Joe Bayley, well known Victoria boxer, will arrive in Prince Rupert this week for his fight with Jimmy Welsh of Chicago.

THE CANADIAN LEGION

(Words by Winifred O. Brass, music by H. T. Lock, introduced at Armistice Day banquet)

We are the men who answered when the stirring call went forth: "Rise! Loyal sons of Canada! Ye legions of the north!"

CHORUS

We are comrades of the Legion! Comrades of the fighting Legion! Our proudest boast from coast to coast, That we are Legion men.

They knew our guns at Marne and Mons, the fury of Ypres; Upon the Somme we harried them, in trenches at Cambrai;

And those who kept their vigil, deep, where Flanders poppies grow, Our comrades, who will hear no more the clarion bugles blow;

Our voices ring, once more we sing the grand old battle songs, Men of the Legion, marching still, though twenty years have gone;

Continued improvement is reported in the condition of William Goldbloom, veteran district fur dealer, who is a patient in the Prince Rupert General Hospital.

Brigadier J. C. Stewart D.S.O., district officer commanding, military district No. 11, Victoria, and Lieut. Col. R. L. Fort, officer commanding Royal Canadian Artillery for the district, arrived in the city this morning on the Prince George from the south and tonight annual inspection of the 102nd Battery will be held.

Timely Recipes

WHY NOT CHEESE?

When cold weather comes healthy appetites automatically seem to require warm foods. Cheese, with its high fat content, is an excellent heat producer in the body.

Cheese Souffle. Three tablespoons butter, 4 tablespoons flour, 1 cup milk, 1/2 teaspoon salt, yolks of 3 eggs, whites of 3 eggs, few grains cayenne, 3/4 cup cheese, grated, pinch of mustard.

Man in the Moon

Too bad the pilot car did not get through the 'Monkman Pass' this week. There were many disappointed people when it failed to arrive.

Some of the orators were almost in despair to think they had no scope for their oratory.

They should send a snow plow over the Hansard end of the route to let that car get out and continue proudly on its way to Prince George and Vancouver.

If this "build your own roads" gets too fashionable, Prince Rupert people may close up the town for a few weeks and all migrate to Prudhomme Lake and beyond and push the road through to Skeena City.

Apparently the fighting spirit still survives in United States. We are told that Tony Galento won a technical knockout from Harry Thomas Monday night.

A few weeks prior to that German won a technical knockout from Czechoslovakia and is wearing the belt.

An Aberdonian was getting married. After the ceremony was over the best man inquired: "I suppose you gave the minister a fee?"

Old lady to village urchin: "Does your father know you smoke?" Urchin: "Aye you married?"

Urchin: "Well, does your husband know you speak to strange men?"

Son: "Daddy, who was Hamlet?" Daddy: "Aren't you ashamed of your ignorance? Bring me the Bible and I'll show you."

Caller (excited): "Is the doctor in?" Maid: "No, sir; and I don't know how long 'e'll be. 'E's been called away to an eternity case."

"The general's been sick." "Really? Why?" "Oh—things in general!"
