TELLS ABOUT PEACE RIVER

Rev. Roy Durnford Speaker Before Presbyterian W. M. S. And Young People

The Women's Missionary Society and the Young People's Society of First Presbyterian Church joined on Tuesday night under the chairmanship of Mrs. D. C. Stuart, president of the Missionary Society, to hear a very interesting address by Rev. Roy Durnford, rector of St. Peter's Anglican Church, on missionary work and conditions in the Peace River district where he was located before coming to Prince Rupert. Following the address, Mrs. J. W. McKinley proposed a vote of thanks to the speaker.

In the devotional part of the meeting, Mrs. J. A. Teng read the Scripture and Rev. H. G. Funston led in prayer.

A musical program included vocal solos by Miss Betty Woods, accompanied by Miss Ruth Nelson, and violin solos by Miss Engina Christian, accompanied by Miss Margaret McMeekin.

Delicious refreshments were served.

Annual Prizes Are Presented

Borden Street School Pupils Receive Awards From Queen Mary Chapter

A pleasant ceremony took place on Wednesday afternoon in Booth Memorial School auditorium when prizes given annually by the Queen Mary Chapter, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, and won by pupils of grade eight, Borden Street School, last year were presented by the educational secretary of the chapter, Mrs. J. H. Norden.

The proceedings opened with the singing of "O Canada." Mrs. S. V. Cox, acting regent of Queen Mary Chapter, in the absence of Mrs. A. T. Parkin, spoke a few opening words, also introducing Mrs. Norden who then presented the prizes which were as follows:

Bursary, $10, for pupil ranking highest in final examinations, Harry Lee.

First Prize, British History, Hugh MacKenzie. Second Prize, British History, Mitchi Yamanaka.

First Prize, Canadian History, Alister Crerar.

Second Prize, Canadian History, Norma Currie.

After the prizes, diplomas were presented to the Entrance Classes of last year of both Booth and Borden Street Schools. These will be the last diplomas presented as there is now a Junior High School.

Arthur Sutton, principal of Booth Memorial High School, gave a short but inspiring talk to the pupils on the necessity of pursuing such studies as would benefit them in the occupation for which they were
