A DETERMINED BUNCH

That bunch of men putting through the trail to connect the Alberta section of the Peace River country with Hansard is the most determined group of which we have heard. They are determined to win out. They have said the highway must be built and, failing help from outside! sources, have set out to make it themselves or at any rate have set out to make a trail over which a car or truck can travel, though it may be with difficulty. As we have said before, such determination deserves to succeed.

CARPING POLITICS

It is noticed that people who formerly favored the highway have changed their minds just because their party has so ruled. That is carping politics. It indicates that people are being ruled by the official political opinion rather than by common sense.

ITS YOUR NEWSPAPER

The Daily News is as much the newspaper of its readers as of its publishers. Without them it would have no value, so why should they not have a say as to what is to appear in it. The Daily News always welcomes suggestions from its subscribers. It is glad to co-operate to the greatest possible extent. It likes to meet the wishes of its readers. The fact that we have so many readers indicates that we know what most people want. But we are always ready to admit that the reader knows more about! his own likes and dislikes than the publisher. Let us know, please.
