WHIFFLETS From the Waterfront

The increase of two million pounds in the halibut quota for the 1938 season as announced by the International Fisheries Commission is equally divided — one million pounds each—between Areas No. 2 and 3. There are no quota limits for Areas No. 1 and 4 in which little halibut exists.

SAFEGUARD AGAINST COLDS

Give a cold an inch and it will take a mile . . . and so-called "common" colds have started many a serious illness.

Eno's "Fruit Salt" is a natural safeguard against colds because it builds up your resistance by keeping you regular. It clears the digestive tract by its gentle flushing action — and Eno helps to neutralize the hyperacid condition that often accompanies a cold. Because of its alkalizing laxative action, Eno gives quick relief not only from colds, but also from that "tired feeling", headaches, and other conditions caused by constipation. Eno's "Fruit Salt" is sold at all druggists. Handy size, 50c; Household size, 85c.

BILL OF COMEDY

"Sing and Be Happy" and "Handy Andy" at Capitol Theatre Here Tonight Only

"Sing and Be Happy," a gay, tuneful love-and-laugh hit featuring two radio stars, Tony Martin and Leah Ray, and "Handy Andy," Revival of one of Will Rogers' pictures, comprise the double bill program for tonight only on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here.

A musical story of rivalry between two advertising agencies seeking a large radio account, "Sing and Be Happy" presents Martin as a barnstorming orchestra leader who is persuaded by his father, Berton Churchill, to enter his advertising firm. Leah Ray is the daughter of the head of the rival advertising agency who has radio ambitions herself. The picture takes some odd and unexpected turns and is fast moving throughout. The cast also includes Joan Davis, Helen Westley, Allan Lane and Dixie Dunbar.

"Handy Andy" presents Will Rogers as a small-town druggist who goees to the New Orleans Mardi Gras and has some hilarious experiences. There is lightning paced action to go with Rogers' homespun wit. Robert Taylor and Mary Carlisle have the romantic lead.

Man in the Moon

A very excellent woman was asked by another to tell her what secret she had to preserve her husband's favor.

"It is," she replied, "by doing all that pleases him and by enduring patiently all that displeases me."

"Myrtle, how long had you known your husband before you got married?"

"Listen, I didn't know him at all —I only thought I did."
