Halibut Fishing Season Ends Tonight With Three Local Boats Still Out—Rough Weather on Grounds—School for Navigation Resumes

With the season for halibut fishing coming to a final close at midnight tonight, three Prince Rupert boats have still to return to Port. They are the Covenant, Capt. Hans Underdahl; Joan W. II., Capt. Al Woie, and Lois N., Capt. Ben Peterson. These three boats would probably have been in here ere this had it not been for the extremely rough weather that has been prevailing at sea of late. Several American boats are also still out but there is no definite check on these at Prince Rupert. It is supposed that the most of them will run through to Seattle with their catches. There are also a few halibut fishing boats still out for cod.

Halibut landings at Prince Rupert for the season up to and including yesterday 13,772,500 pounds as compared with 13,296,850 pounds at a corresponding date last year. This year's Canadian total to date is 6,110,650 pounds while American vessels have brought in 7,161,900 pounds. During the past week landings amounted to 259,000 pounds including 25,000 pounds from two Canadian vessels and 234,000 pounds from nine American bottoms. The two Canadian boats were the Constance B. which was paid 10.7c and 5c for 17,000 pounds and the Morris H. which received 10.6c and 5c for 8,000 pounds. For American fish the highest price of the week was 11.6c and 6c which the Bernice was paid for 14,000 pounds and the low 8c and 5c received by the Coolidge for 18,000 pounds.

Southbound from Skagway to Vancouver, C. P. R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. S. K. Gray, was in port yesterday afternoon, making her final voyage of the season. Next trip the Princess Louise will be replaced by the steamer Princess Norah which is due in port northbound on Thursday morning of next week. There were 210 passengers aboard the Princess Louise yesterday including seventeen disembarking here. The through passengers consisted to large extent of employees of the White Pass and Yukon Route going south for the winter, among them being Capt. John (Scotia Mac) Macdonald, master of the well known Tagish Lake boat Tutschi, and his crew. The Louise took no passengers from here for the south.

Capt. J. R. Elfert, harbor master, has received instructions from Ottawa to reopen the School for Navigation here on November 1. Classes will be held in Capt. Elfert's office on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings. They are open to all seamen desiring instruction in navigation and seamanship.

Canadian Legion Men And Women In Terrace Meet

TERRACE, Oct. 29.—On Wednesday evening the Terrace branch of the Canadian Legion and the Women's Auxiliary of the same organization held a joint meeting in the Oddfellows' Hall in conformity with their custom to hold meetings jointly each quarter. Mr. Dubeau is president of the mens' organization while Mrs. Dubeau is president of the Women's Auxiliary. Both were present and they sat side by side at the presidential table.

A good deal of business was dealt with. Some necessitous cases were considered and small sums were voted for relief. A debate arose in this connection. Nigel Sherwood objected to assisting cases of distress when they are not members of the Legion and have never taken any interest in the organization. He was without support, however, in this and when the votes were counted, these appropriations were granted by a unanimous house.

Plans for the celebration of Remembrance Day were advanced. There is to be a Remembrance Service at 11 a.m. on November 11 and at night there is to be a dance. At the dance several prizes are to be given, final arrangements in regard to this are not yet complete. These prizes will be displayed in one of the local stores on Monday next. They consist of some excellent needlework which has been done by the Terrace ladies—quilts, cushions and other useful and pretty things, all beautifully embroidered.

When all the business matters were cleared off the slate, the whole company sat down to light refreshments, the men having provided the viands and coffee as this was their turn to shoulder the responsibility. President Dubeau, in a neat address, remarked on this but had to confess that the excellence of the fare caused him to suspect that the ladies had made the cakes and sandwiches just the same.

Kitwanga Has Lively Dance

Affair Held Under Auspices of Owl Crest in Interior Village This Week

KITWANGA, Oct. 29.—Under the auspices of the Owl Crest and on behalf of Gus Sampare, a fine dancing party was held Wednesday night in De-Au-Zip Community Hall. There was a large crowd in attendance including quite a number from Kitzegucla. Harold Sinclair was master of ceremonies and kept the party moving in good style. Lively music was furnished by Stanley Williams' orchestra.

All joined with enthusiasm in the Grand March including 89-year-old Joe Williams who disported himself like a youngster.

Another feature of the evening was a potato race in which Rev. and Mrs. Bert Shearman were the winners over Matthias Bright and George H. Moore.

Delicious refreshments were served with Mrs. F. D. Sampare and Mrs. Cadwallader in charge.

There was a speech of appriciation by Charles Smith on behalf of Gus Sampare.

There will be a Hallowe'en dance in Kitwanga on Monday night.

HALLOWE'EN MASQUERADE

Gay and Colorful Dance Staged Last Night by Gyro Club With Many Interesting Costumes

While the crowd was not as large as last year, the Prince Rupert Gyro Club's Hallowe'en masquerade dance in the Moose Hall last night was a gay and colorful affair, proving highly enjoyable to all present. There were numerous interesting and ingenuous costumes and, in keeping with the season, the hall had been handsomely decorated, the ceiling with orange and black streamers and the walls with Hallowe'en emblems and balloons. Masks, hats and favors were issued to the guests.

Dancing commenced at 10 p.m. and continued until 2 a.m. Excellent music was furnished by Charlie Balagno's Orchestra.

Just before the serving of supper, there was a Grand March for the display and judging of costumes. The judges were Mrs. Jack Woods, G. E. Phillipson and George Mitchell. The prize-winners were Earl Eby and Miss Florence Parker as Chinese peasants; Mrs. Gladys Halliday and Miss Edith Connery as a southern period couple; Walter Cross and Miss Dora Cunnings as a clothesline and Jack Armstrong as a Chinese laundryman.

Orme Stuart was general convener of the dance, other members of the club assisting as follows:

Master of Ceremonies—D. G. Borland.

Decorations—G. L. Rorie.

Punch Bowl — Cecil Fitzgerald, Jack Bulger and W. M. Watts.

Costumes—W. F. Stone.

Refreshments—Orme Stuart, C. C. Mills, Joe Scott, T. W. Brown, William Cruickshank, Dr. H. N. Brocklesby, Dr. Hugh Morrison.

Door—Frank Dibb, G. A. Hunter and Croft Brook.
