WOMEN SHOULD PROPOSE

They Should Also Wear Harem Skirt Says Methodist Pastor.

Spokane, Jan. 12.—"When a young woman decides to qualify for a homemaker she should be permitted to exercise the same freedom in aggressively negotiating a matrimonial contract as a man. What justice to the womanhood of this country is there in the sentiment that compels her to sit around and wait for some suitable fellow to propose marriage?" declared the Rev. Earl Nafziger, pastor of the Vincent Methodist Episcopal Church, one of the richest congregations in Spokane, before a packed audience last Sunday night.

"The harem skirt," he said, "is not meeting with approval, but it would be foolish for women to reject it, because it is a comfortable garment, more modest than the harem skirt. The name alone is not savory. The modern turban, plain and without decoration, is the most practical hat yet introduced."

ABOUT BACHELORS

A Study of the Creature by a Man Who Knows.

A bachelor is a man who comes home late on a cold, dark night and gets a warm and effusive welcome from the hat rack.

When a man has arrived at the age of thirty without evincing the slightest interest in the cost of living, at the increasing outrageousness of millinery, he may properly be called a bachelor, says George Fitch in the Kansas City Star. Bachelors are of two kinds—self-made and girl-made. The first kind is a man who is too foolish to marry. The second kind is produced by women who are too wise to marry. Owing to the inconceivable tender heartedness and headiness of women the first variety is by far the most numerous.

Bachelors live as a rule, but are kept in a passable state of repair by their landladies. They are very handy, and will eat almost anything. If you are in doubt as to whether a man is a bachelor or not invite him to dinner. If he accepts with a hungry look in his eyes he is either a bachelor or a man with a peripatetic wife. Then set before him a piece of fried shoe upper. If he eats it without remark and grabs his coffee cup about the waist instead of by the handle you can safely bet that he is a bachelor from the lightning lunch belt.

Bachelors are most attractive between the ages of 30 and 40, during which time they are in an excellent state of preservation, and are able to dodge heiresses and chorus girls, matrimonially speaking, with ease and skill. Between 40 and 50 the bachelor becomes more pensive and cannot imagine why young girls of 18 are so unanimously elsewhere when he calls. From 50 onward bachelors are objects of pity, who live alone, pursued by many terrors. It is a sad sight to see a trembling old bachelor holding a ferocious baby which has been loaned to him by some heartless father for the amusement of a large room full of company. At this age, too, many bachelors who have successfully avoided dozens of happy marriages earlier in life are caught helpless and feeble by some designing widow and meet a terrible fate.

Bachelors are useful when young for wearing down ballroom floors, supporting theatres, candy stores and florists and seating guests at weddings. Later on they become useful for paying taxes and as horrible examples. Bachelors have done some good in the world, but as forefathers and ancestors they are a dismal failure.

Nice, cosy, beautifully furnished rooms in the new Alberts Block, head of Centre street, on 2nd avenue. Modern in every particular.

FOURTH HUBBY FOR LILLIAN

Blonde Beauty This Time Confers the Honor on a Newspaperman. Things Are Looking Up All Right.

New York, Jan. 12.—That Alexander P. Moore, publisher of the Pittsburg Leader, will shortly become the fourth husband of the fair Lillian Russell was coyly confirmed by the bridegroom-elect and some of his closest friends today. Miss Russell is going to retire from the stage and cease her magazine writings, he said, in order to take a prominent part in Pittsburg society.

Miss Russell's first husband was Harry Brahm, the musical director, who got a divorce, while her second was Edward Solomon, whom she finally got rid of by proving he was already wed when he married her. Her third was John Chatterton, the singer, better known by his professional name of Signor Perugini. She divorced him in 1908, and several times since then rumors of her engagement to Moore have been circulated and denied.

NEWSPAPER BURNED OUT

Five-Storey Building of Halifax Herald Now in Ruins.

Halifax, Jan. 12.—The Halifax Herald's newspaper plant and five-storey building were destroyed by fire early this morning. The building is still in flames.

Do you remember the pride your grandfather took in the old muzzle loader that hangs in your "den"? It was always his "old reliable" that made the marvelous shots. Can you imagine a more profitable investment than a good gun?

GREENER GUNS

Wear for generations. They are handed down from father to son and grandson, in many instances without costing a cent for repairs, seems a tall statement, but we can prove it. Think of the pleasure you'll derive NOW from handling a really good gun, but it must be a GREENER, for no other handles or wears quite so well. Our catalog contains illustrations and particulars of over 38 grades. Copy mailed free on receipt of postal.
