KitKatla Has Early Picnic

Entire Population Enjoys Outing
On Village Grounds on First Day of April

KITKATLA, April 9.—Weather being bright, warm and spring-like last Friday, an enjoyable picnic was held on the Kitkatla village playground under the auspices of the Kitkatla Excelsior Club with almost the entire population of the village in attendance to enjoy the season's first outing. Members of the social committee of the club made general arrangements for the event while the ladies looked after the refreshments.

After the picnic had got under way nicely, the village fire bell sounded and caused enough excitement to make a good April Fool joke for somebody.

At the opening, there were speeches by Mrs. Matthew Hill head of the ladies' department of the club, and by John Nelson and Joseph Innes.

The main event of the day was a football game between the married and single men during which Henry Collison made a speech. Mr. Colison made the first kick-off and was assisted in opening the game by John Nelson.

Halibut Season Starts Off Satisfactorily
—Jimmy Irvine Buys Gasboat—
Jimmy Thomas Charters Grier
Starrett

The first week following the opening of the 1938 halibut season on April 1 saw scattered landings totalling 211,700 pounds at Prince Rupert. Of this 112,200 pounds was brought in by ten of the regular vessels of the fleet and a few small Indian boats. Seven American boats accounted for 99,500 pounds. While they may not necessarily Capt. James Thomas has chartered the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. fish packer Grier Starrett for the fishing season.

The Viking, one of the halibut boats landing catches at Seattle Thursday, reached the Puget Sound port from Port Angeles in tow of the coastguard vessel Alert. On Tuesday night she had lost her propeller off Carmanah, Vancouver Island and several hours later her flares attracted another halibut vessel, Wesley, which towed her into Neah Bay where she was picked up by the cutter Red Wing and taken to Port Angeles. Capt. Adolf Stenland is owner and skipper of the Viking.

Southbound from Skagway to Vancouver, C.P.R. steamer Princess Norah, calling here from 4 to 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon, had thirty-five passengers on board. Six persons disembarked here from the vessel, three going aboard here for the south. On the way from here to Vancouver, the Norah made a special call at Ocean Falls Friday to load seventy tons of paper. The Princess Norah will make one more trip on the Alaska run before being replaced by the Princess Louise.

to a generous source of raw materials and responsible spokesmen recall the recent challenge of their foreign minister, Von Ribbentrop. "It is no longer possible to have milk and honey flowing in some countries while others have to fight for a mere minimum of existence. The remedy can be found either by solving the problem of returning Germany's former colonies, or by the German people's own strength."

The charge that Germany's empire ambitions will not be fulfilled by restoration of her former possessions is brushed aside with indignant protest. "It is easy to offer such excuses," a government economist said. "All Germany wants is the right to share some of the world's rich resources for the sustenance of her own people." Germany, he said, had been

G. A. McMillan

Generally popular in Prince Rupert is the appointment of G. A. McMillan, for years manager of the local dry dock, as superintendent of Canadian National Steamships with headquarters at Vancouver. It is a distinct promotion for Mr. McMillan and all his friends were delighted when the news came. In his new capacity, he will still have considerable to do with the local yard. Indeed, he expects to spend a good deal of time in Prince Rupert despite the fact that his headquarters will be in Vancouver. He will be back here about the middle of next month in connection with the overhaul of the steamer Prince Charles.

GAY TEMPO

"Baroness and Butler," With William Powell and Annabella, Here
This Week-End

A delightfully gay comedy romance, "The Baroness and the Butler," is the week-end feature picture on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here. The cast is headed by the debonair William Powell, as a perfect butler, and the lovely European sensation Annabella, as a perfect lady.

The story is an odd one of the butler and his employer, a count, who are both elected to Parliament as members of opposing parties. Annabella is the count's daughter and the salty Helen Westley has the part of the countess. Many hilarious situations arise as the two political opponents go to Parliament together, to say nothing of the situation between the young baroness and her former servant. With a breezy opening, the picture carries on throughout with bright tempo.

One of the features of the picture is the fine array of new thrilling vestiture presented by Annabella, whose first American-made picture this is.

The supporting cast includes Henry Stephenson, Joseph Schildkraut, J. Edward Bromberg, Nigel Bruce and Lynn Bari.

Dance Success

Two Hundred and Twenty-Five
Persons at Enjoyable Affair

Some two hundred and twenty-five persons enjoyed the first hoedown of the year at the Moose Hall last night.

Swing music was provided by Saunders' Serenaders and, during intermission, songs of the range were rendered by R. H. (Slim) Sewell and William (Bill) Brucker.

The dance was in the hands of a committee consisting of Bill Gray, Sam Currie Jr., T. Smith, M. Vineberg and S. Stiles. Miss Nellie Gurvich was at the door and Walter Smith handled the duties of master of ceremonies in his own genial way.
