Local Hospital Board Hears How It Is Intended to Clear Out Such

Correspondence from Percy Ward. ince, explained to the hospital board at its meeting last night some of the procedure in connection with the removal from hospitals of "problem cases," namely indigents who have been in hospital for over three hundred days and who do not require active hospital treatment but are unable financially to maintain themselves. For this type of patient, the provincial government is withdrawing its per diem grant. However, the services of the local welfare visitors are being put at the hospitals in making arrangements time. for the handling of these "problem cases" under the hospital clearance problem. Before any action can be taken, the attending physicians must be consulted. The government holds the municipalities definitely responsible for such cases. Henceforth the hospitals are required to turn in certificates covering each ! hospital inmate coming under this
