J. G. Johns is Speaker at British-Israel Meeting

Taking as his subject "Mileposts left on last evening's train for a of Prophecy" by the late Dr. Pascoe Goard, J. G. Johns gave an interesting reading at the British-Israel meeting last evening in the Toc-H this morning to be running on Many of the great prophesies in the Bible were prepared and launched two thousand years ago, said the speaker. God, who saw the end from the beginning, had prepared a plan of His administration. This marvellous prophetic scheme related itself to the people Dominion Constable A. J. Watof God in every age-past, present kinson returned to the city on the and future.

Abraham was the starting point of a "chosen generation," the establisher of a distinct faith, upon which would be based the Kingdom of God in the earth.

Many of the mileposts pointed out, by the speaker had appeared since the fateful year of 1917 when Jerusalem was captured. Others would appear. All these mileposts warned that the old Imperial militaristic son, is paying a brief visit to the order was ending and that the Kingdom of God was coming into lits own.
