Cash for Old Gold. Bulger's. S.O.N. Meeting Tonight 8:15.

M. B. Lemon returned to the city on the Princess Adelaide this afternoon from a trip to Vancouver.

G. U. Clarke, who has been visiting in the city, sailed by the Princess Adelaide last night on his return to Vancouver.

Owing to a delayed connection out of Jasper, tonight's train, due from the east at 11 o'clock, is reported to be three hours late which would bring it in at 2 a.m.

J. A. Cameron of Vancouver, representing the R.C.A. Victor Corporation, left by last evening's train for Prince George after spending a couple of days in the city on business.

S. E. Sunbury, mill manager of the Georgetown Lumber & Box Co.'s sawmill at Big Bay, James Woodhouse, sawyer; Lino Colussi, filer; and Mike Colussi, setter, arrived in the city on the Venture last evening following a holiday trip to Vancouver and proceeded by gasboat this morning to Big Bay.

J. Fred Ritchie jr., who returned home this week from Vancouver after an absence of several years, expects to remain here indefinitely. His father, J. Fred Ritchie sr., who has been ill at the Prince Rupert General Hospital for some time, continues to make good progress toward recovery.

Roger Powell, Indian, was sentenced by Magistrate McClymont in city police court yesterday afternoon to three days' imprisonment for theft. He had been involved with Albert Soulier, sentenced to thirty days' imprisonment yesterday, in the theft of a pair of trousers from the cabin of Leo Anton Rolman on Third Avenue.

SAYS HE WAS SOBER BUT IS BADLY DAMAGED; SHOULDER IN PLASTER

Goldbloom, the "Old Reliable" fur dealer, seems to have been not quite so reliable this week as might have been expected. On Monday he was thrown from a car near the C.P.R. dock and strained the ligaments of his shoulder and is now properly plastered, in a plaster cast. However, he is still meeting customers at his store but cannot shake hands with the right hand. He says the Lord is good to him because now he can't write cheques but he can take in cash with the left hand. He says that so far no one has sent him any flowers. Goldbloom says he was sober when the accident happened.

Entertainment Was Enjoyable

Varden Singers Attracted Crowd Of One Hundred and Fifty Persons to Metropole Hall Last Night

Featured by an amusing play, a musical program and a dance, the Varden Singers presented a very enjoyable entertainment in Metropole Hall last night, the affair attracting a crowd of about 150 persons.

The first event of the evening was the presentation of the play "Stolsheig." Between the acts and immediately following the play the choir sang numbers. Nels Gunderson was also heard in a comic song.

Those taking part in the play were Mrs. A. Dbyhavn, Mrs. C. Giske, Mrs. S. Anderson, Mrs. P. Wikdal, Miss A. Skaland, Miss J. Skaland, Nels Gunderson, B. Pedersen, A. Lindseth, H. Gulbransen and Peter Lien. Inge Valen was director of the play.

Ingvald Fenness announced the program and Nels Luth and C. Strand presided at the door.

After a brief pause, the dance commenced, keeping up in full swing until 2:30 in the morning, with Nels Gunderson as master of ceremonies. Music was furnished by Fossum Brothers. Refreshments were dispensed by the ladies of the choir.

The winner of a raffle was Gerd Lien with No. 17.

Boys' Club Is Going Ahead

Total Attendance of 397 for Month Of January Reported

At the monthly meeting of the supervisors of the Boys' Club, a total attendance of 397 for 21 nights was shown or an average of almost 16 boys per night. This was thought good considering that during the month of January there had been an epidemic of whooping cough and that of measles had begun.

The sum of $15.40 was procured through the monthly dime collection.

Cribbage and checkers were received from T. McClymont and a pair of stilts.

Presbytery To Meet In City

United Church Activities in Prince Rupert Next Week

Preparations are already being made and delegates are arriving for the spring Presbytery of the United Church of Canada which is to be held in First United Church next Wednesday and Thursday. The Presbytery will be in charge of the chairman, Rev. F. W. Hardy of Ocean Falls, and lay and ministerial delegates will come from as far south as Ocean Falls, as far north as Stewart, as far east as Hazelton and as far west as the Queen Charlotte Islands.

The Ladies' Aid of First United Church is providing a supper on Wednesday at which the public will have an opportunity of meeting the delegates and enjoying the fellowship of the Presbytery. Greetings will be conveyed at this time from the clergy of the city.

At a public meeting on Wednesday evening addresses will be given by Dr. Hugh Dobson of Vancouver, secretary of Evangelism and Social Service for the United Church in Western Canada, and Dr. S. S. Osterhout, superintendent of Home Missions for the Prince Rupert Presbytery and Oriental Missions for Western Canada. Communion will be observed, and special music will be rendered by the choir of First United Church.

On Thursday members of the Presbytery will be the guests of the Rotary Club at their regular weekly luncheon at which Dr. Dobson will speak.

Representatives of Presbytery will be at Port Simpson tomorrow for the official opening of the new United Church there.

NAVAL BOYS ENTERTAIN

Monte Carlo Night Went Over Strong at Headquarters of R. C. N.V. R.—250 Present

The "Monte Carlo Night" staged by the local unit of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve at Naval headquarters last night proved a novel and enjoyable variety entertainment which attracted a crowd of some 250 persons, making a complete success of the affair.

A cabaret dance, games of chance and floor show were featured in the hall which was attractively decorated for the occasion with special spot lighting effects from the balcony, naval colors and emblems and large moons. Special menus had been prepared for the tables which were attended by members of the reserve specially attired as waiters with white jackets and carrying silver trays and towels.

The affair opened early at eight o'clock and closed at 1 p.m. Splendid music was furnished by Mrs. DeCarlo's Orchestra.

The games were roulette, with Sid White and Ned McLeod in charge; crown and anchor, William Murdoch; horse racing, David McMeekin and Bob Elkins; twenty-one, Bob Armstrong and Bob Duggan; banko, Bill Bremner, and wheel and paddles, Jim Irvine and Charlie Anderson. Monte Carlo currency was issued from the bank of which Harry Robb was in charge.

The floor show included accordion selections by Mario Bussanish; vocal solos by Miss Betty Woods, and burning Indian Club swinging by Harry Gordon-Cooper appearing as Tarzan. Each of these numbers scored a hit.

Allan Davies was head waiter with Harold Ponder, Eric Berner Ted Mills and Norman McLeod as the other waiters.

Walter Smith was floor manager and chairman of the general committee which also included Harry Robb, Bob Armstrong and Allan Davies.

Second Night Of Play Is Success

The second presentation last night at First United Church of the farce "One Delirious Night" by the Christian Youth Society in aid of the Women's Auxiliary of the Prince Rupert General Hospital drew a packed house and the show went off quite as well as on the opening night. Miss Edith Conery and Miss Phyllis Hamblin were usherettes and Robert Irvine and Robert Peachy presided at the door.

Following the performance, a social was held in the church social parlors for the cast and those assisting. Refreshments were served by the Women's Auxiliary of the Prince Rupert General Hospital on behalf of which the president, Mrs. J. R. Morison, extended thanks to the Christian Youth Society for its efforts. Ken Harding replied on behalf of the cast and then presented Mrs. John Manson with a silver cake plate in token of appreciation of her efforts as director. Mrs. Manson acknowledged the gift suitably.

sense tale "The King And The Coach" and stimulated interest in the serial, "The Ghost of Cobblestone House." Mrs. N. M. Carter related the popular "Little Hero of Harlem" and delightfully portrayed the origin of "The Lady in The Moon." Eileen Hamblin pleased with a modern hero story "The Fire Engine That Grew Too Old."

Next week the program for children between the ages of 4 and 3 will be in charge of Mrs. Robert Cameron, Mrs. L. C. Jensen and Jean Cameron.

I WAS NEVER SO EMBARRASSED

-FOR I KNEW THAT ACID-INDIGESTION WAS DISTRESSING TO ME AND OFFENSIVE TO OTHERS BUT NOW—I JUST

ALKALIZE THE EASY PHILLIPS' WAY

The quick way to alkalize is this: Take two teaspoons of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia 30 minutes after eating and drinking. Or, when among others—take two Phillips' Tablets that come in a small flat tin you carry in purse or vest pocket.—You do it unnoticed. Relief is almost immediate. "Gas," nausea, acid breath and other offensive symptoms leave.—That "stuffed" feeling and pains from "acid indigestion" cease to annoy. You feel great. This is the way, we believe, more doctors use than any other when alkalinizing upset stomach.
