

WHIFFLETS From the Waterfront

Latest word in regard to the United States aircraft tender Teal, coming to pay a visit to this port on her way to Alaska, is that she should arrive about next Monday.

C. P. R. steamer Princess Adelaide, Capt. S. K. Gray, is due in port at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the south and will sail at 10 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

Up to noon today there was no change in the herring seiners' strike situation which is holding the Port Edward and Tucks Inlet reduction plants in idleness.

Union steamer Cardena, Capt. Ernest Sheppard, is due in port at 6 o'clock tomorrow morning from the south and will sail an hour or so later on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

CONCERT AT KINCOLITH

Large Turn-out at Event Conducted in Naas River Village by Pentecostal Assembly

KINCOLITH, Jan. 20.—A splendid concert was presented by the Pentecostal Assembly of Kincolith last Saturday night in the Church Army Hall. There was a large attendance of villagers at the affair which was presided over by the local pastor, George L. Stewart, who made an opening address. Robert and Peter Stewart, chairman of Christ Church, led in prayer. Andrew Nelson read the scripture.

The program included the following numbers:
Hymn, "Rock of Ages," the congregation
Chorus, "Jesus of Nazareth," by the Assembly.
Vocal Duet, "Only Believe," Mrs. Elizabeth Morrison and George L. Stewart.
Chorus, "Jesus Is Passing," the Assembly.
Duet, "No Disappointment in Heaven," Mrs. Martha Stewart and George Stewart.
Chorus, "Men of Calvary," the Assembly.
Vocal Solo, "What a Morning," Sam Lincoln.
Chorus, "Grace Greater Than All," the Assembly.
Solo, "Come to the Father," George L. Stewart.
Chorus, "Jesus Shall Lead Me," the Assembly.
Duet, "Only a Preyer," Mrs. May Barton and Ernest Stephens.
Organ solo, "Fifth Nocture" (Leyman), Mr. Green.
Vocal duet, "I Will Promise Him," Ralph Clayton and Mrs. Katie Clayton.
Vocal solo, "Lower Lights," Percy Barton.
Chorus, "I Know the Lord," the Assembly.
Solo, "Calling for You," George Clayton.
Duet, "Ivory Palace," William Stephens and George L. Stewart.
Organ solo, "Minuet in G," Arthur Nelson.
Solo with chorus, "Wounded for Me," Charles Morrison.
Vocal solo, "Lord God of Hosts," Robert Stewart.
Vocal solo, "Ave Maria," Ernest Stephens, accompanied by Mr. Green at the organ with violin obbligato by George L. Stewart.
Vocal solo, "Something More Than Gold," little Marhorie Clayton.
Vocal solo, "Thine Own Way," Francis Watts.
Vocal solo, "Golden Bells," Ralph Clayton.
Chorus, "Jesus Will," the Assembly.
Closing Hymn, "Blest be the Tie," the congregation.
Ernest Stephens was organist; George L. Stewart, violinist, and William Stephens, cornetist.

GIRLS WHO HAVE NO BOY FRIENDS

Quick Easy Way to Get Charm

Girls who don't attract boy friends wonder why. Beautiful, perfect features are not the reason. Cleopatra and famous women were often ugly. Have nice skin, plenty of animation, and watch out for your figure—you'll be surprised how popular you are. So many girls have poor complexions—no life—their figure slipping, and don't realize it. Take "Fruit-a-tives" and you'll soon be amazed how different and how attractive you've become. It purifies your blood, makes the skin pores work, gets rid of waste and poisons, gives you new energy, prevents flabby tissue from forming. "Fruit-a-tives" gives you new charm. 25c, 50c.

Anglican Tea Was Success

Affair at Home of Mrs. W. H. Tobey—Mrs. Parlow and Mrs. Waddington Farewelled

The first Anglican Women's Auxiliary tea of the year was held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. H. Tobey. Despite the inclement weather the affair was quite a success. The guests were invited by Mrs. Tobey, assisted by Mrs. C. V. Evelt.

The tea table, daintily decorated with snapdragons and daffodils, was presided over by Mrs. Thomas Andrew and Mrs. J. C. McLennan. The tea room was in charge of Mrs. W. C. Aspinall, Mrs. H. S. Meadows and Mrs. W. J. Nelson. Servitors were Mrs. G. W. Cripps, Mrs. William Cruikshank, Mrs. J. G. Johns, Mrs. C. C. Mills and Mrs. J. H. Nordman. The cashier was Mrs. F. A. MacCallum.

The homecoming was in charge of Mrs. C. E. Cullin and Mrs. G. Smith.

During the afternoon Mrs. J. B. Gibson, in a few well chosen words, expressed the regret all felt at the departure from the city of two Women's Auxiliary members, Mrs. A. E. Parlow and Mrs. A. H. Waddington. Each received a framed picture of the harbor in recognition of faithful service.

Societies. Japan declined, stating that she had already made necessary provision. China accepted with a gratitude that reflects her terrible need.

China is suffering.

The extent and severity of that suffering has seldom, if ever found equal in the history of nations.

The shelling and bombing of cities, bringing terror, death, disablement and destitution, not alone to soldiers, but to countless women and little children helplessly caught in the maelstrom of war, have created distress of unparalleled proportions.

At the expressed wish of Canadian citizens in many parts of the Dominion, the Red Cross and the Religious Bodies of Canada, in affiliation, are creating a fund, through which our people may express their sympathy in tangible form.

No brief is needed for this appeal. Day by day, press and radio are laying the stark facts of this great tragedy before us. The need for kindly assistance will never be greater. In the face of suffering such as theirs, our sympathy and help can know no barriers of race or creed.

We feel confident that Canada will meet this need promptly with generous hand and heart.

H. A. DRAYTON,
Chairman.

Editor, Daily News:
In connection with the recent death of my friend, Louis Lazzarotto, the account given in your paper scarcely did justice to a man who was a lover and promoter of all sports, a donor to all worthy causes and was of a real value to the city, a true patriot who spoke openly and feared no one.

I sincerely hope that those responsible for the publication of the report of the sad event will remember the old proverb "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

FINE PLAY PRESENTED

"Heidi." With Shirley Temple. Week-end Feature Offering At Capitol Theatre

Starring Shirley Temple in the leading role, "Heidi," beloved story of the colorful folk who live high up in the Swiss Alps, comes as the feature offering to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here this week-end. The story is one that has been read by millions and of tenderness and charming beauty, has been translated in many languages.

The story is that of an embittered mountain-top exile, portrayed by Jean Hersholt, who is reclaimed from his fierce hatred of the world, of a young girl who finds strength and courage to walk again and of the little heroine who brings every one new zest for life.

It is another straight dramatic part for Shirley who made such a great success of her first dramatic role in "Wee Willie Winkie" which was here a short time ago.

Arthur Treacher and Helen Westley play prominent parts in the story and Pauline Moore, Thomas Beck, Mary Nash, Sidney Blackmer, Mady Christians and Sig Rumann are also featured in the cast.
