PRISONER: No, my lord. I was a good student and captain of the football

UDGE: Ah! I think I can solve this mystery. Tell me, prisoner - how many games of football do you get every week now?

PRISONER: Why, I can only play once a week-on Saturdays-at the most. UDGE: Thank you. That will do. This case is as clear as daylight.

PRISONER: (excitedly): Oh, sir, I'm sure I'd be fit if I could exercise more often. I'm not getting half enough fresh air or exercise nowadays.

JUDGE: Fresh air? What's the good of talking about fresh air when you work that so clearly, my lord. I am really in the city? What you want, young man, is something to make up for this nevitable lack of exercise. Something sluggish. Something to keep you clean and fresh and regular internally, just thing. > UDGE: Epsom alone is not good enough. Nature designed your system to need several different salts and in Kruschen all those salts are found. Each little daily dose of Kruschen contains exactly one day's supply, exactly the right amount to keep all your organsliver, kidneys, stomach and everything -tuned up to perfect fitness. Kruschen is more than ever necessary at this time of the year, because it is a valuable tonic.
