Valhalla Lodge Dance Success

Capacity of Metropole Hall Taxed By Event on Friday Night By Revived Organization

The revived Valhalla Lodge held a very enjoyable Christmas dance on Friday night in Metropole Hall, the attendance being so large as to completely tax the capacity of the premises. Henry Lindseth was master of ceremonies and excellent music was furnished by Possum's Orchestra. Mrs. Jack Ivarson had charge of the serving of delicious refreshments. A large and gaily illuminated Christmas tree was the feature of decorative arrangements.

Pretty Wedding Thursday Night

Miss Kathleen Johnson Becomes Bride of Rudolph Amron

Last Thursday evening a very pretty wedding took place in the Manse of First Presbyterian Church, Rev. H. G. Funston officiating, when Miss Kathleen Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Johnson of Vancouver, became the bride of Rudolph Amren, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ameren of Sweden. The bride was gowned beautifuly in a white satin dress with a floor-length veil topped with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of butterfly roses. The bridesmaid Miss Gladys Johnson, wore an attractive pink organdie dress—carrying a bouquet of carnations. The groom was attended by Oscar Giske.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Commodore Cafe where Mrs. O. Stegavik and Mrs. O. Giske received the guests which numbered about sixty.

H. T. Lock played Mendelsohn's wedding march on the arrival of the couple. The tables were prettily decorated with pink tapers and chrysanthemums. During the wedding supper J. A. Teng sang "Because" and Mr. Worsland gave several violin solos.

A three-tier wedding cake was duly cut by the bride. The couple received congratulations under a white bell and also numerous gifts. The hall was pretty with pink and white streamers.

After the wedding supper many happy hours were spent until the early hours of the morning by all in dancing with Charles Balagno's four-piece orchestra playing.

The bride is well known in this city and was for many years an employee of the Prince Rupert General Hospital. The groom follows the trade of an electrician at Dawson. The couple will take up residence for the winter months on Seventh Avenue East.

P. A. Sunderland is sailing on the Surdena this afternoon for Vancouver to spend the Christmas and New Year season.

Community 'Xmas Tree At Terrace

Happy Affair Held on Thursday Night at Interior Town

TERRRACE, Dec. 19:—The Community Christmas tree was held in the Oddfellows' Hall Thursday night. The affair was managed by a committee composed of representatives of various clubs and lodges and they did their work well. The small children were given presents during the afternoon while those above twelve years of age came in the evening.

Harry King received loud cheers as he took his place as chairman on the platform. Jeff Lambly acted the part of Father Christmas and there were 310 children to be given something from the tree. All went off without a hitch and the youngsters went away happy, each one carrying a bag of candy.

An enjoyable program had been arranged. Miss Aileen Gibson brought about twenty of her pupils from Lakelse School. These young people provided a pretty sketch founded on one of Hans Anderson's fairy tales.

The pupils of the Terrace school sang carols and they were accompanied on the piano by their fellow pupils, a happy feature of the entertainment.

Christmas Dance Of High School Pupils Enjoyed

On Friday evening a High School Christmas dance for senior classes was held in the Oddfellows' Hall. There was a good attendance of about 130 young people. Members of last year's Grade 12 and Commercial classes were guests. A tap dance by Olga Lewis and Margaret Dawes, accompanied by Miss Lois Judge, was enjoyed by all present. After refreshments had been served, Betty Wood rendered a vocal solo. The students danced from 8 to 12 p.m. to music by Balagno's Orchestra. The dance broke up after the singing of "God Save the King."

The hall was prettily decorated in the red, yellow and green colors of the three houses of the school with shields and class emblems on the walls. Balloons in variegated colors were also used and later caused much merriment.

The Lambeth Walk was one of the features of the dance program.

Peter Allen, president of the Students' Council, was master of ceremonies.

Members of the teaching staff present were Principal Arthur Sutton, Miss May Jones, Miss Joyce Edgecumbe, Miss Eva Cavalier, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. C. O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nordan, Mr. and Mrs. Garfield McKinley, Mrs. T. L. Davis, H. Wilkinson and H. Leighs.
