There's a Good Reason You're Constipated!

When there's something wrong with you, the first rule is: get at the cause. If you are constipated, don't fiddle around with makeshift remedies. Find out what's giving you the trouble!

Chances are it's simple if you eat only what most people do: meat, bread, potatoes. It's likely you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean a lot of food It's a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a bowel movement.

If that fits you, your ticket is a crisp crunchy breakfast cereal-Kellogg's All-Bran. It contains the "bulk" you need plus the great intestinal tonic, vitamin B1. Eat All-Bran every day, drink plenty of water, and just watch the old world grow brighter! Made by Kellogg in London, Ont.

SYNOPSIS: Jim Lane, test-pilot for the Drake Aviation Company, is a hero to everyone who knows him-including himself. His mechanic, Gunner Sloane, is his best friend. Jim takes a Drake plane on a Transconlinental flight to break the speed record. He develops engine trouble and is forced to land in a Kansas wheat field. A girl watches him land. "Did you go to college, Mr. Lane?"

As Jim (Clark Gable) crawls out of his plane, the girl runs up to him. He turns to flash her the old smile that gets 'em. "I broke the record so far," he grins, "but then expects her to be bewildered and dazzled. Instead, she laughs outright, then murmurs, "Why have you been so long? I've been waiting for you." Jim frowns as he realizes

He likes her because she is more down-to-earth than anybody he's ever known, except Gunner Ann realizes that given half a chance she could love Jim to distraction. However, that evening, she introduces Jim to Joe (Ted Pearson), as the man to whom she's engaged to be married.

"What's this Ann

"This is my wife, Gunner."

Gunner arrives! "You saw a dame, so you landed," he jeers. He fixes the plane and departs. Jim sets out for New York. Ann watches him take off, her eyes filled with tears. She sees him fly a short distance, turn back and land. "I forgot something," he mutters. "You forgot me," she cries. He siezes her in his arms and kisses her. Together they set off in the plane.
