DAILY EDITION.

MONDAY, JAN. 22

A LAND FULL OF OPPORTUNITIES.

That Northern British Columbia carries a larger and more varied stock of natural resources and opportunities for the settler, the prospector, the adventurer and the investor no one who has spent a couple of years in the country has reason to doubt. Not only are its ranching and fruit growing possibilities well known, its riches in minerals and water power to develop them, its great forests and its immense fisheries, but in things outside of these opportunities are offering every day by virtue of new discoveries. It is only a few weeks ago since a cement works within a few miles of the railway. More recently a mountain of granite, suitable for building, paving blocks and concrete, has been located, and so it goes on, one thing after another, to add to our productive wealth.

The most recent is the magnificent specimen of elephant ear sponge now on exhibition in the window of Orme's drug store, and those whose attention is attracted by it are asking if this means another industry. It probably does, but too little of the matter is known to at once definitely answer the question. This specimen was dragged up by its roots by some halibut fishermen off the west coast of Graham Island last week. It seems strange to read of sponges growing so far north, but undoubtedly this is explained by the fact that the Japan current swirls past the Queen Charlotte Islands, thus materially modifying the temperature of the ocean and the climate of the islands. Sponges are mostly found in tropical or semi-tropical waters, and the variety known as the elephant ear sponge grows to great perfection of the coast of Southern Florida. This is by no means a solitary specimen that has been found off Graham Island, but it chances to be the first that has ever been exhibited in Prince Rupert. There have been others found from time to time, but public attention being thus directly drawn to the matter it will no doubt lead to full investigation, and possibly this addition to our natural resources will result in one more being added to the growing number of our industries.

Moral for trail blazers, prospectors and adventurers by land and sea: If you find anything that looks good bring it to Rupert.

MR. REAL ESTATE MAN

CAN YOU TAKE A HINT?

The following is a sample of a kind of letter The Daily News frequently receives. This one is from a man in Alberta

Dear Mr. Editor:

Me and some friends of mine would like to buy a few city lots in Prince Rupert, but we don't know anyone at present in Prince Rupert, so we have written to ask if you would be kind enough to send me on your daily paper, as I am told it advertises the most city lots and property for sale in Prince Rupert, for which I send you on some stamps. Hoping you will oblige us, and apologizing for the trouble.

Yours respectfully,

THE DAILY NEWS has the biggest circulation of any paper in the district. It is all bona fide circulation too. It enters the homes of real estate investors in every leading city in Canada as well as England and the United States.

DISTRESSFUL LAND AGAIN

Terrible Rioting Predicted in Ireland Over the Inauguration of Home Rule.

Violent opposition is expected to the establishment of Home Rule in Ireland on the part of the Orangemen. Sir Edward Carson said recently: "We don't want rioting, though, unless we are forewarned there will certainly be terrible riots in Belfast immediately after the Home Rule bill passes its third reading in the House of Commons. Ulster will fight by refusing to recognize the Dublin Parliament. For instance, the farmers will refuse to pay their instalments on land they have purchased to the Dublin executive, and if the latter try to sell the farms they will not find buyers. There will be no fighting, but a deadlock. In the sequel it will come to this: The Dublin Parliament will not have any troops, and if they want to exert force they must apply to England for troops. The essential question is, would the English Parliament comply with Dublin's request and send soldiers to enforce an executive order of which England has no official knowledge and over which she has no control?"

St. Andrew's Society Opens Banquet Season.

The banquet season is now well at hand and as usual the St. Andrew's Society takes its place at the head of the big dinners planned. This year the feast will be spread at the Premier Hotel, where extensive preparations are now being made, and judging from the personnel of the committee in charge the statement is warranted that this year's attempt will exceed all previous efforts. The dinner will be held on the evening of January 25th. Tickets may be had from J. H. Kelly, W. B. Kerr, George Scott, Malcolm McLeod or the secretary, S. D. Macdonald.
