JEWEL THEFT IS MYSTERY

After Three Years' Quest Scotland Yard Men Run to Ground and Arrest Suspect for Robbery of Queen of Siam's Gems.

(Canadian Press Despatch.) London, Jan. 22.—Jules Deboeck, a newspaper man, is under arrest on the charge of complicity in the theft of jewels valued at $500,000, which were being shipped to the Queen of Siam. The prisoner was remanded to custody. It is believed that other arrests are imminent.

In the summer of 1909 a London firm placed the gems in a heavy iron box and shipped them on a German steamer. When the box arrived at Bangkok it was empty. For three years Scotland Yard detectives worked on the case, but could find no evidence warranting an arrest until the other night, when they traced Deboeck from the Straits Settlement to London, where the arrest was made. The prisoner declares he is innocent.

WED SATURDAY MORNING

Pretty Bride Comes All the Way from Italy for Ceremony.

A week ago Miss Olivia Colussi arrived here from Italy and on Saturday morning was joined in wedlock to John Vaccher, the lover for whose sake she had braved the long and perilous journey.

The ceremony took place at the Catholic Church, Rev. Father Bunoz officiating. The bride was dressed in white satin and wore real orange blossom. The bridesmaid was Miss Louiso Astori, and the best man C. Severino.

The church party was numerous, but was further augmented at the wedding breakfast, which took place at the new home of the bride, the Vaecher boarding house on Fulton street.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that an application will be made to the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia at its next session for an act amending Section 3 of the British Columbia & Alaska Railway Act, 1910 (C.S.S., Statutes of British Columbia, 1910), by striking out all the words after the word "Columbia" in line 10 of said Section and substituting therefor the following:

"And from Fort George in a north-easterly direction to the valley of the Parsnip River by way of Fort McLeod, thence along the Parsnip River to a junction with the Peace River, thence along the valley of the Parsnip River through Sifton Pass, thence down the Stikine River to a junction with the main line at Telegraph Creek; also powers to build branch lines either through the Pine River or Peace River passes to the eastern boundary of British Columbia, or by way of the most feasible route, or in the alternative by the most feasible route between Lytton and Teslin lake, also to build from a point on said line of railway to the City of Vancouver or from the City of Vancouver to a point on said line, by the most feasible route."

And further, for an act extending the time within which the company has to commence construction and expend ten per cent of its capitalization.

Dated at Victoria, B. C., this 5th day of December, 1911.

80 PER CENT. DIVIDEND Would Make You Run, Wouldn't It?

It's just as important to get good returns from your gun as it is from your cash, and you get both when you invest in a GREENER GUN.

No other gun in the world can equal the Greener for regularity and closeness of pattern, combined with striking force.

The Greener was the first perfected choke bore and the system of boring, with which it won the Great London field gun trials of 1875, etc., is still the best today, and, in fact, the only one guaranteeing a pattern of 80 per cent of the charge in a 30-inch circle at 40 yards. This means hard hitting as well, and is but one of the many features covered by the Greener Guarantee.

It's worth thinking and acting upon. Send for catalog, mailed free. It will be sure to interest you.

A SKATING COSTUME

One of the Latest Dainty Designs in Vogue in the East.

A pretty skating costume in the new and extremely thick reversible satin was seen this week. It is in mole gray, the reverse side of which is a vieux rose. This somewhat striking color is, under normal circumstances, only displayed in the buttons and button-holes of satin, which mark the line of the tunic, and where it forms an edging for the collar and sleeves. The rest of the gown preserves its grayness in a striped velvet, of alternating dark and light stripes. A strap of satin above the ankles is elastic, and hence allows free movement in an apparently plain skirt. A gray silk beaver toque has a trimming of the gray satin, with rosette of the vieux rose and a shaded pink ostrich plume.

OLD ENGLISH CANDLE CUP

Pleasant Restoring Drink for Winter Weather.

On a cold night, after an evening spent in skating, try the "candle cup" to warm up the skaters. It is given in Good Housekeeping as follows: Boil a cupful of oatmeal in two quarts of water, slightly salted, add the juice of two lemons, half a grated nutmeg, a teaspoonful of cinnamon, half a pound of raisins and three tart apples cut in quarters. Cook all until soft, strain through cheesecloth and pour on more water if it is too thick. When ready to serve add two well beaten eggs and remove from the fire a few minutes while stirring before pouring into a heated punch bowl.

LADY SHERIFF'S DEPUTIES

Latest Innovation in New York Administration.

Three women, well known in the social life of New York, have been selected by Sheriff Harbarger of that city to be his deputies. They are Mrs. Charles H. Truax, widow of a Supreme Court justice; Mrs. John S. Crosby, president of the Women's Democratic Club of New York, and Miss Ada Patterson. The duties of what has been considered strictly a man's job have no terrors for the lady sheriffs, and in a few days they will raise their hands and have the badge of authority pinned on their dresses.

TO MAKE CHOP SUEY

Well-Known New York Society Woman's Recipe.

The following directions tell how a well-known society woman in New York makes this famous Chinese dish: Cut the meat from eight pork chops (lamb may be used, though it rarely is) into small lumps and fried in hot olive oil until well browned. To the meat then are added two cups of mushrooms, two large onions, chopped fine, a stalk of strong celery, also chopped, and a cup of wheat sprouts. (These may be omitted if they cannot be obtained in a Chinese quarter or sprouted at home.) Before the meat is fried three dessertspoons of cornstarch and two of sugar should be added to the mixture just after the celery, onion and wheat sprouts. The whole should be cooked over a very hot fire and constantly stirred. The mass will thicken and grow smooth. It should be cooked half an hour.

LARGE ENGLISH LUMBER CORPORATION Will Locate There.

The Dominion Saw Mills & Lumber Co., Ltd., the large English corporation, which within the last year or so has acquired extensive lumber milling interests in British Columbia, has decided to locate its chief office for the manufacturing end of the business in the city of Calgary.
