It's No Surprise That You're Constipated!

If constipation has you bogged down so you feel tired, sunk, all played out—it's time you asked yourself some questions! What have you had to eat lately? Just meat, bread, eggs, potatoes? It's no surprise you're constipated! The chances are you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean a lot of food. It's a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a bowel movement. If this is what you lack, your ticket is crisp crunchy Kellogg's All-Bran for breakfast every day. It contains the "bulk" you need plus Nature's great intestinal tonic, vitamin B. Eat All-Bran every day, drink plenty of water, and take a new lease on life! All-Bran is made by Kellogg in London, Ontario, Sold by every grocer.

Mrs. McLeman Laid At Rest

Funeral of Well Known Stewart Woman Takes Place This Afternoon

The funeral of the late Mrs. Elsie Elizabeth McLeman, wife of D. W. McLeman, well known Stewart hardware merchant and pioneer of the north including the Yukon, took place this afternoon from the chapel of B.C. Undertakers to Fairview Cemetery with Rev. H. G. Funston, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, officiating. S. C. Thomson presided at the organ to accompany the hymns which were "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Abide With Me." Pallbearers were R. E. Moore, S. C. Thomson, J. J. Little, D. C. McRae, William Gair and S. E. Parker. There were a number of floral offerings. Mrs. McLeman passed away last week at the Prince Rupert General Hospital after an illness of a few weeks. Besides her widower, she is survived by a daughter, Barbara, aged eight, and son, William, six.

Card of Thanks

D. W. McLeman and family of Stewart wish to convey sincere thanks and appreciation to all friends for their beautiful floral tributes and kind expressions of sympathy during their recent sad bereavement.
