Following a tour of the central interior for the purpose of vestigating the possibilities of a huge Empire settlement proct somewhere in that area, Sir Henry Page Croft Bart., C.M.G., P. for Bournemouth and chairman of the Empire Developent and Settlement Research Committee, and Councillor R. S. algleish, former Lord Mayor of Newcastle, arrived in the city n this afternoon's train and will proceed to Vancouver on the eamer Prince Rupert this evening. They are accompanied Brigadier General M. L. Hornby of Lethbridge, Alberta, father the well known Hornby Plan for agricultural settlement, and ichael Croft, secretary. A dinner is being tendered the party the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce during its stay.

"We have travelled in British Columbia from Kamloops to azelton," said Sir Henry. "In that area we have seen a new ountry possessing all the natural resources that any nation eeds. Into this new land we hope by joint action of the Brith. Canadian and British Columbia governments to cause a eritable river of immigration to flow from the Motherland."

The Croft expedition, accompanied by a cavalcade of autohobiles from Smithers, arrived at Hazelton last night and came n here from there.

Brigadier General M. L. Hornby, whose efforts were responble for the Prince George brief on immigration to the Rowell commission, has been taken ill because of the strenuous week. te accompanied the party in to Prince Rupert and will e able to continue from here to Vancouver. He is suffering rom an asthmatic condition.
