NOBODY'S BUSINESS

It is nobody's business what we do as long as we keep within the law in doing it. It is nobody's business if we eat or drink too much as long as we do not make a nuisance of ourselves in public. We may eat the wrong kind of food if we wish and send ourselves to an early grave and it is nobody's business but our own.

We can refuse to walk, spending all our spare time in a car and thus become soft and useless. This is nobody's business but our own. We have a right to kill ourselves that way if we wish. For anyone to interfere would be considered an impertinence.

We can spend all our spare time listening to the radio, reading trashy stories, refusing to do anything which might improve our minds, cause us to think or make of ourselves intelligent human beings worthy of a say in the government of the country. Yet this is nobody's business but our own. No one has a right to interfere or say that we must use our spare time to better advantage. We may even, if we like, stand on the street corners and join the little groups that loaf there and spit. As long as we do not make nuisances of ourselves, it is nobody's business.

Occasionally we find people trying to improve their neighbors. Such a thing occurred at Anyox some years ago. The management of the mine decided that men must wash before entering the dining room. That was a hardship and was resented by many of the workers. This time it was somebody's business whereas the men felt it was nobody's business how they ate their meals.

We are not suggesting that these things shall be regulated by the state or by anyone else. We have a right if we wish to sit and complain all day about how badly used we are, how hard the world is and what should be done to make things better, especially for the ne'er-do-wells, at the expense of those who seem to be rich. It is nobody's business if they do this. Evidently they enjoy it for the same people keep on doing it for years on end.

We might go on all day writing of things that seem to be nobody's business. There seems to be nothing we can do about it except to start at the bottom and educate the children to do things in some different way. The older people will carry on as they have been going unless some day they get shocked out of their complacency by the doctor, the police or some other agency for saving the remnant after the damage has been done. It seems to be nobody's business if our lives are ruined or if we die prematurely.

Plans To Complete Morse Creek Pool

Soon As Work Is Finished Electric Clubs Will Hand Over to City Or Younger Men

At the regular business luncheon of the Prince Rupert Rotary Club yesterday J. J. Little, chairman of the Morse Creek pool project, reported that the committee consisting of W. H. Tobey of the Gyro Club and himself had decided to put in four more siphons in the dam at a cost of $40, to paint the buildings, put in a hand rail, fill the back of the dam and try to arrange for more stumps to be pulled. Then it was planned to ask that the committee be dissolved and the work of carrying on the pool be left either with the city or with an organization of young men.

TRAVEL TO PR. GEORGE

Smithers Hockey Players And Curlers Leave Today—Davidson Wins Hanson Trophy

SMITHERS, Feb. 4:—The rink skipped by Bob Davidson won the Hanson Cup in the curling tournament at Smithers when it defeated the Downey rink by a score of 20 to 11.

Other members of the winning rink were Sid Robinson, Bob Elliott and Frank Newbury and they all threw winning rocks throughout the game. At no time was the outcome in doubt.

With this particular tournament completed, preparations had been made at once to carry on with the "Lucky Lager" bonspiel and the first two games in this series were played Wednesday evening. The Downey rink trounced the Watson rink to the tune of 21 to 5 while Pete Eby came from a long way behind to nose out Bill Duff 19 to 9.

The weather is ideal for good curling ice and the games will continue until this series has been completed and new bonspiels will be begun.

A rink of curlers left here this morning with the Smithers Hockey team to visit Prince George and enter the bonspiel there.

SPORT CHAT

Billy Townsend of Vancouver failed to last one round against black-haired Tony Canzoneri at New York five years ago last night. The world's lightweight boxing champion tore into the Canadian and flattened him in 65 seconds. Lou Ambers now holds the title.

Elzear Rioux, French-Canadian heavyweight boxer, was fined $1,000 and suspended indefinitely by the Illinois State Athletic Commission for his "unsatisfactory showing against Primo Carnera eight years ago today. The Canadian woodsman was sprawled to the canvas in 47 seconds.

PUCK GAME IS STAGED

Henri Letourneau's Team Beats Joe Scott's—Charity Game Planned For Sunday

Yesterday afternoon at Oliver Lake hockey teams captained by Joe Scott and Henri Letourneau staged a game, the latter winning by a score of 7 to 5. Referee was P. E. Robertson. It was a keenly contested affair and quite a few spectators were on hand in spite of a misunderstanding through which some had thought the game was to be played at Morse Creek. Preparations are being made for a charity game on Sunday at Morse Creek, bringing together a number of old timers of the puck game. A bee of those interested will be held meantime for the purpose of getting the ice in good shape.

COULD HARDLY CLOSE HANDS

Had Rheumatism and Neuritis

"I suffered severely from Rheumatism and Neuritis," writes Mr. W. J. Tracy of Toronto. "I could hardly walk upstairs or close my hands. After taking Fruitatives four days the swelling left my hands and knees. I could climb stairs and ladder. I advise any person suffering as I did to take Fruitatives. They give quick relief." Try this real fruit juice, herb and tonic prescription of a famous Canadian doctor. If you suffer, they might clear up your case too. 25c. and 50c. No substitute. At druggists.
