Sergeant J. H. McClinton Appointed to Take Charge of Vancouver District of Provincial Police

Transfers in the provincial police service announced today include that of Sergeant J. H. McClinton, in charge of Prince Rupert district, to Vancouver in a similar capacity. Sergeant McClinton has been located in Prince Rupert for several years, first as divisional clerk and later as sergeant in charge of the district. Departure of himself and Mrs. McClinton will be regretted by many friends.

Sergeant McClinton's successor here will be Sergeant E. Gammon, at present in charge of Prince George district. Sergeant Gammon will come to Prince Rupert as no stranger as he was located here previously years ago.

Another change affecting the provincial police in the north is the creation of a separate sub-division with headquarters at Prince George. Sub-Inspector J. H. Johnson, now in Vancouver, will take charge of the new Prince George subdivision. Up to the present Prince George has been a part of Prince Rupert division.

F. A. MacCallum Principal Speaker at Enjoyable Congregational Function Last Night

With F. A. MacCallum, president of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, as speaker of the evening, an enjoyable congregational supper was held last night in the parlors of First Baptist Church. The tables, which had been prepared were completely occupied. There was an excellent supper after which an acceptable program was presented.

H. M. Daggett occupied the chair. Rev. E. E. Brandt, pastor of the church, pronounced the blessing. Immediately after the supper, there was community singing under leadership of P. H. Linzey. Then the Misses Aileen and Phyllis Hamblin and Edith Johnstone gave an instrumental trio followed by a vocal solo by Mrs. Garfield McKinley. P. H. Linzey gave a humorous recitation and Rev. E. E. Brandt sang a solo.

In his talk, F. A. MacCallum stressed the value of people getting together in all walks of life, not only in the churches but in the community as a whole. Only by getting together could results be obtained. The world today had a great call on the Christian church to combat the evils all round, said Mr. MacCallum. Speaking of international affairs, the speaker expressed the belief that preparedness was the greatest preventative for war.

Like in a city, an adequate police force, with the power and authority to enforce law and order, seemed to be needed in the world. Mr. MacCallum paid tribute to the former pastor of the Baptist Church, Rev. Dr. F. W. Dafoe, and predicted a successful future for the church under the leadership of Mr. Brandt.

The importance of young people's work was stressed by Mr. MacCallum.

The general committee in charge of the supper consisted of Mrs. Norman Fraser, convenor, Mrs. P. H. Linzey, Mrs. E. E. Brandt, Miss Kay Watson, P. H. Linzey and H. M. Daggett. Serviteurs were Mrs. G. Berg, Miss M. Armstrong, Miss Nancy Bremner, Miss Betty Bremner and Miss A. Petersen.
