Liquor Licenses Mr. J. Wade, a lumber dealer reflected the present excitement of the community on the liquor question by bringing up that subject. Being in the consturction belt, McBride, so far has been without a license. Mr. Wade said he had been told in Fort George that one would be issued in Mc-Bride, and he carelessly intimated that he supposed it would go petition; that two licenses were to the man who paid the highest better than one. Mr. Bowser, price. Mr. Bowser's main speech however, took the view that for had been a pretty tame affair, but there was more than a sting in enough to start on and he took his reply to Mr. Wade.
