Hinton Would Be Popular Manager.

At the meeting of the Board of Trade on Friday evening M. P. McCaffery expressed the hope that W. P. Hinton, vice-president and general manager of the G. T. P., would be appointed manager under the new regime. Practically all Prince Rupert people will agree with him that it would be a great thing for a man who is in touch with the situation here to be in control. Mr. Hinton has shown himself to be an efficient and popular official and none will rejoice more than the people of Prince Rupert if he is chosen to guide the destinies of the railway under conditions that will give him an opportunity to carry out his plans of improvement and of efficient administration.

Public Library Important Matter.

Now that the elections are over and aldermen are about to consider the policies for the coming year, it is to be hoped that they will not forget the need of a public library for this city. It is necessary to take the matter up soon because there will have to be a sum put in the estimates for the year, to provide for the salary of the librarian, which is the chief expense in connection with the project.

In a place where there are not many amusements, and where there are few means of intellectual development, it is necessary that books be available for the use of the citizens. These need to be educational and recreational.

There are so many needs in a new place that it is sometimes difficult to secure support for all. The library is very important, however and the time is opportune for establishing it.

President of France Different From States.

The election of president for France makes it interesting to note his mode of election and powers. Unlike the president of the United States he is elected by a majority vote of the National Assembly of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies in joint session. He holds office for seven years and as the chief executive he appoints to all military and civil posts and has the individual right of pardon and is removable only on a charge of treason.

Deschanel will select a cabinet from the two chambers but may if he wishes select ministers who are not in either house. He should choose a general for minister of war, an admiral as minister of marine and a civilian as minister of foreign affairs. He cannot declare war without the approval of both chambers, but he can make treaties, although treaties which affect the area of France or French colonies must be approved by the legislature. Every act of the president has to be countersigned by a minister. With the consent of the Senate he can dissolve the Chamber of Deputies.

I began to improve immediately and this wonderful fruit medicine entirely restored me to health. All the old pains, headaches, indigestion and constipation were relieved and once more I was well.

To all who suffer from Indigestion, Constipation, Rheumatic Pains or great Fatigue, I advise the use of 'Fruit-a-tives'."
